

HEARST TO GET IT ON FIRST BALLOT

Such Was the Consensus of Opinion At Buffalo Last Night

DISTRICT ATTORNEY JEROME HAS WITHDRAWN FROM THE CONTEST FOR THE NOMINATION OF GOVERNOR, BUT IS LEADING THE FIGHT AGAINST HEARST MAYOR ADAM MAY RALLY THE OPPOSING FORCES

BUFFALO, Sept. 25.—At a late hour tonight, it was announced that owing to the inability of the committee on platform and resolutions and contested seats to finish the business before them, it would probably be 2 p. m. tomorrow before the convention reconvenes.

At a second session of the adjourned conference tonight, District Attorney Jerome made an address, which many believe means that he possibly may lead a fight against the nomination of Hearst in the convention tomorrow. It is reported that he intends securing a proxy from one of the New York county delegates for the purpose of stating his position to the convention.

There were about forty anti-Hearst men at the conference tonight, when Jerome began speaking. He said in part:

"So far as I can understand the political situation in the Democratic party in this state, a group of disreputable crooks, and a few that term themselves, are in control. It is a very deplorable condition, but I believe you will all feel the same, and I will fight to the last ditch to prevent, if possible, the consummation of a dangerous bargain."

Congressman Sulzer of New York is still in the race for governor and was present for a short time at tonight's meeting of the Albany conference. The anti-Hearst men claim that if they can make a combination with the Kings county delegation, controlled by Senator Patrick H. McCarran, they will be able to muster 300 votes in the convention. It will require 225 votes to nominate.

Hearst Democrats. At the conference, to which Jerome was a party, it was decided to appoint a committee to ascertain whether or not the anti-Hearst sentiment could be centered upon either Mayor J. N. Adam of Buffalo or Justice Gaylor.

At the conference, Thomas M. Osborne, former mayor of Auburn, said a critical condition confronted the Democratic party and there was danger that the emboldened and traditions which we all love are to be turned over to the Independence League.

"It is," he continued, "the sense of the majority of those present that we should concentrate on some candidate who can be voted for by all self-respecting Democrats, and who may possibly defeat this unholy alliance."

Jerome, John N. Carlisle of Watertown, secretary of the Democratic state committee, and former Mayor Osborne were appointed a committee to go among the delegates and ascertain the sentiment and report.

Jerome would make no statement after the meeting. He has let it be generally understood during the past few days that his object in entering the race was for the purpose of defeating the nomination of Hearst. Any combination that could accomplish this would be satisfactory to him.

Representative Sulzer claims he has 141 votes outside of Greater New York who will stick to him throughout. He says that even if he does not get the New York county votes, but obtains those of Kings and Queens, he will have a total of 237, or eleven more than necessary.

Sulzer said the only assurance he has from Charles F. Murphy is that some time between the close of today's session of the convention and the session tomorrow a Tammany conference will be held, and Murphy is very friendly to him, he added. He also asserts that Jerome, McCellan and Adam are all working for him as the one man who can best Hearst.

Mayor Adam will undoubtedly be placed in nomination tomorrow, and it was reported tonight that Jerome may have a proxy to be on the floor of the convention as a delegate.

In a session lasting only twenty-four minutes the convention today effected a temporary organization and cleared the way for its actual work, beginning at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. The executive committee program was adopted and Lewis Nixon, a former chief of Tammany hall, was elected temporary chairman.

His ten-minute speech was devoted to the main to accusations against the Republican state administration of mismanagement of $101,000,000 appropriated for reconstruction of the state canal and of betrayal of labor, and closed with an appeal for harmony, which he predicted would insure victory at the approaching elections and lead to the overthrow of the Republican domination in national affairs.

Nixon said a state victory, which he predicted, would be a forerunner of a national Democratic victory. The platform of the state would, he said, be also a forerunner of the national platform. He charged the present administration with reckless extravagance and betrayal of labor.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The Democratic convention will tomorrow nominate a governor and a full state ticket, action which may not go through with all the smoothness that characterized the first brief session today. In less than half an hour today, all the preliminaries of temporary organization were disposed of. Lewis Nixon of New York, the temporary chairman made an appeal off hand, which was applauded more than and other utterances, although the convention could not be termed a wholly enthusiastic one so far.

There is tension among the delegates tonight, however, that may break into a storm tomorrow, to sweep away the structure which was built today after many hours of effort on the part of the leaders, who are trying to find a common ground where, temporarily at least, the Democracy of the state may pitch its tent and hope to withstand the tempests of the coming campaign.

According to the consensus of opinion tonight, William R. Hearst of New York, who is already the nominee of the Independence League, will probably be nominated for governor on the first ballot. Along with Hearst, it is said, the convention will name W. Stuyvesant Chandler, of Dutchess county, for lieutenant governor, and John S. Whalen, of Monroe, for secretary of state. Both Chandler and Whalen are also on the Independence League ticket.

It is asserted that this is as far as the most radical of the Hearst delegates will go in taking over the candidates of the Independence League, for included in the ticket that organization are one or two Republicans.

In announcing this decision to support Hearst, a number of the Democrats here stated that they had reached this decision not because of any conversion to all the ideas of government which Hearst represents, but because they feel that, under the existing circumstances, he is the strongest candidate the convention has before it. The men who bitterly fought Hearst in years gone by have announced their intention to vote for him tomorrow, though they declare that they are not ready to retract any statements they have made in the past. The declaration Hearst has entered into no deal with them whatever, and that the fight has been fought squarely and without pledges on either side.

The same old party men, while going into the convention tomorrow with the announced purpose of supporting Hearst, are not pledged to such a course, and if a storm shall break, they will stand under no obligations to adhere to their present plans.

Hearst is generally conceded to have gained control of three important committees appointed at the first session of the convention, the committee on contested seats, which will decide contests in twenty districts, involving sixty votes; the committee on platform and resolutions, and the committee on permanent organization.

The platform agreed upon late tonight by a subcommittee of six appointed from the full committee will contain a plank declaring for municipal ownership under certain conditions, and it is stated it will endorse William J. Bryan.

Hearst will be placed in nomination tomorrow by former Assemblyman William V. Cook of Albany county. This county is first in the roll of delegates.

The candidacy of District Attorney William T. Jerome was practically withdrawn today at an adjourned meeting of the Albany conference of anti-

BUNCO "PROMOTER" WAS FOUND GUILTY

Sacramento Jury Was Satisfied of the Guilt of Man Formerly Convicted.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.—William Whalen, the Nevada mine operator, who cleaned up $30,000 in this city by disposing of stock of worthless mines, was found guilty of obtaining money by false pretenses by a jury today and will be sentenced Thursday.

Whalen did not take the stand in his own behalf, because the prosecution had proved that he served a four-year term in a Missouri penitentiary for obtaining money by false pretenses by selling stock for the same worthless mines he bunched the Sacramento public with.

TWO ACCIDENTS ON SAN FRANCISCO CAUSE CAUSED SERIOUS INJURIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Two persons were injured in street car accidents today. Peter Diaz was caught in the collision of a heavy truck and a street car on McAllister street near Jones. His leg was crushed and he was taken to the Central Emergency hospital for treatment. Eddie Blaise, a small boy, was thrown from a Police street car. He sustained injuries about the head which were treated at the City and County hospital.

SECONDARY FIRE AT TRACY.

STOCKTON, Sept. 25.—Fire which is believed to have been of incendiary origin and for a time threatened the town of Tracy, broke out last night in the barn of Dr. J. G. Murrill, destroying it, together with two other barns and their contents, two windmills and a number of out buildings. It was with difficulty that the fire department saved the town. The loss is about $2000, with small insurance.

NEW ARMY COOKER USED IN THE FIELD

Experiments Have Proven the Value of Invention for Preparing Food for Army.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Under the direction of Commissary General Sharp of the army, experiments have been made at the practice camps this summer and fall of a new cooker. The cooker has been used by the army for some time in an experimental way but this fall it has been tried under severe service conditions. The results have been particularly satisfactory both to the officers of the commissary department and to the men in the field.

The cooker now in use has four compartments and weighs empty about 20 pounds. It will hold twenty gallons of food, enough to supply a meal to a company of infantry or a troop of cavalry.

BALANCE OF TRADE OF FARM PRODUCTS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Although the imports of farm products were larger in 1905 than in any year since 1890, says a report of the department of agriculture on exports of farm and forest products, the value of the exports exceeded that of the imports by more than one-half, and there was a balance of trade of $285,000,000 in favor of the farm products. The report adds:

"During the last sixteen years the balance of trade for all products was $3,092,000,000 while the balance of trade for farm products was $3,325,000,000. In 1905 the balance of trade in favor of farm products was the lowest since 1890, due to a falling off in the grain trade and to the increase in the quantities and in the average import price of certain articles in wool, hides and skins and coffee."

HAVANA, Sept. 25.—It is declared on very high authority that American intervention in Cuba is certain. Furthermore, it is expected that the proclamation of intervention will be issued from Oyster Bay.

OVERSEA BAY, Sept. 25.—Secretary of War Taft has not yet given up hope of bringing about a settlement of the difficulties between the Cuban government and the insurgents without resort to armed intervention. The advice from Cuba, which have been received at the executive offices up to tonight, according to Assistant Secretary Latta, are by no means as pessimistic as the newspaper reports which came from Havana today. It appears to be in the opinion here that Secretary Taft still believes peace may be the outcome in spite of all the difficulties which have arisen.

HAVANA, Sept. 25.—The Cuban republic tonight stands on the verge of a second period of American intervention. The Moderate party, which, six weeks ago, was in absolute control of every office in the island, national, provincial and municipal, is tonight determined to abdicate everything and compel the United States to intervene. In fact, every government official, from President Palma down, is sincerely allied to force such intervention, rather than yield to any one of the terms offered by the Liberal party and those in arms against the government.

Liberal Call It Treason.

The Liberal leaders characterize the conduct of the government as treason to the republic. While Secretary of War Taft regards it as an unwarranted and dishonorable attempt to force the hand of the United States into intervention, this has been stated, it is precisely what President Roosevelt has been most anxious to avoid.

Roosevelt's Last Effort.

It is still just barely possible that President Roosevelt, through Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon, may yet arrange to establish the Liberals in control of the Cuban government, but this is regarded as only the remotest sort of possibility. With either party installed in power, there would still remain a condition of deplorable dissatisfaction and unrest, and tonight there appears nothing whatever to promise relief, save full control by the United States.

Acting Secretary of the Interior Montalvo declared this evening that he would never turn over the army to the Liberals, under any circumstances, but all government officials unite in saying that if the rebels in the field, or any portion of them, resist American control, the Cuban army would co-operate with the United States in every way possible.

Relief at the Palace.

The real feeling at the palace is one of relief in the prospect that the adversaries of the government will not win through the government losses, combined with the satisfaction that the United States will be obliged to take

NAPA STRIKERS ARE ENJOINED BY COURT

Trouble at Portland Cement Works Had Reached a Dangerous Stage.

NAPA, Sept. 25.—In compliance with a request filed Monday in the case of the Standard Portland Cement company vs. the Federal Labor union of Vallejo et al. Judge Gessford issued an order today to the strikers of Napa Junction, which will keep them off the grounds of the company, and also keep them from making threats of any kind against strike-breakers at that place.

M. Feranti made a statement today in which he states that while he and several of his companions were on their way to work at the cement works, three strikers accosted them and told them they must not go on the property or work for the company, and that if they did, they would have their heads broken and would receive other injury.

RUSSIAN REFORMER SAYS THE ONLY SOLUTION IS A NEW GOVERNMENT

MOSCOW, Sept. 25.—M. Shipoff, the veteran reformer, in an interview with the correspondent of the Associated Press, declared that the only honorable and possible escape from the painful ordeal through which Russia is passing, and from a blacker future, is the immediate replacement of the Stolypin cabinet by one composed of men supported by public opinion, and the immediate election of members to a new parliament.

HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL.

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—The magnificent new building of the Harvard Medical school were dedicated here today. This group of beautiful white marble buildings is the largest single addition to the resources of Harvard in the history of the university.

RED CROSS COMMITTEE AND SAN FRANCISCO

Question of What to Do With $600,000 on Hand Must Soon Be Settled.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Because of the absence of Secretary of War Taft and Robert Bacon, assistant secretary of state, the meeting of the executive committee of the Red Cross, called for today, was postponed until October 1. It is the purpose of the committee to decide as soon as possible what disposition shall be made of the $2,500,000 San Francisco relief funds still held in Washington.

As winter is approaching, the Red Cross executive committee feels that it should be instrumental in providing homes for earthquake sufferers who are living temporarily in tents and have no means of obtaining better shelter.

The Red Cross officers have advised the relief committee that the delay in the meeting of the executive committee of persons who are in need of food and other necessities, as the Red Cross treasurer has been instructed to supply the California committee with money necessary to meet the urgent demands of refugees.

BILL OF EXCEPTIONS IN MRS. LUDOX CASE A MAMMOTH PAPER

STOCKTON, Sept. 25.—The bill of exceptions in the case of Emma LeDoux, convicted of the murder in this city last March of Albert McVicar by poisoning him and placing him in a trunk, was filed by the attorneys for the prisoner. It comprises 800 typewritten pages and there are more than 250 exceptions to the rulings of the court. It has been referred to the prosecution for amendment and revision pending its submission to the superior court on a motion for a new trial.

INTERVENTION IN CUBA WILL BE FORCED BY PALMA'S MEN

Secretary Taft Declares Himself Disgusted With Action and Attitude of Cuban Government

AMERICAN CONTROL APPEARS TO BE WITHIN MEASURABLE DISTANCE—PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT CABLED PALMA URGING HIM TO YIELD THE POINTS ESSEN- TIAL TO SECURING PEACE—MARINES AND SAILORS ARE BEING RUSHED TO HAVANA AND ARMY DEPARTMENT IS HASTENING PREPARATIONS.

HAVANA, Sept. 25.—It is declared on very high authority that American intervention in Cuba is certain. Furthermore, it is expected that the proclamation of intervention will be issued from Oyster Bay.

OVERSEA BAY, Sept. 25.—Secretary of War Taft has not yet given up hope of bringing about a settlement of the difficulties between the Cuban government and the insurgents without resort to armed intervention. In fact, every government official, from President Palma down, is sincerely allied to force such intervention, rather than yield to any one of the terms offered by the Liberal party and those in arms against the government.

Liberal Call It Treason.

The Liberal leaders characterize the conduct of the government as treason to the republic. While Secretary of War Taft regards it as an unwarranted and dishonorable attempt to force the hand of the United States into intervention, this has been stated, it is precisely what President Roosevelt has been most anxious to avoid.

Roosevelt's Last Effort.

It is still just barely possible that President Roosevelt, through Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon, may yet arrange to establish the Liberals in control of the Cuban government, but this is regarded as only the remotest sort of possibility. With either party installed in power, there would still remain a condition of deplorable dissatisfaction and unrest, and tonight there appears nothing whatever to promise relief, save full control by the United States.

Relief at the Palace.

The real feeling at the palace is one of relief in the prospect that the adversaries of the government will not win through the government losses, combined with the satisfaction that the United States will be obliged to take over Cuba indefinitely and possibly forever.

Palma Will Resign.

President Palma has called a special session of congress for Friday, when he will present the resignation of himself and Vice-President Mendez Capote. The Moderates, however, will not attend that session of congress, for in their hurriedly called national moderate assembly this afternoon they decided unanimously simply to quit forthwith. They will not even attend the approaching session nor have anything more to do with the revolution in Cuba, alleging that they have been unjustly treated by President Roosevelt's commissioners.

This determination is taken by Taft and Bacon, however, as another indication that the Moderates, since they cannot longer control the government themselves, are determined, at whatever cost, that the Liberals shall not now, or hereafter, obtain control.

Vice-President Has Quit.

At the conclusion of the Moderate assembly this afternoon, Vice-President Mendez Capote called on the American commissioners and declared that he had been instructed by the Moderates assembly to draft a reply to Secretary Taft's letter in which peace terms were suggested. After this interview, Senator Mendez Capote said to the Associated Press: "I have resigned irrevocably my position as vice-president of the republic. I resigned because the resignation of President Palma was forced upon him by causes detrimental to the dignity and decorum of the office of chief executive. The president will convene congress in extraordinary session on Friday to consider his resignation and my own."

Will Block Action.

Mendez Capote said further that the entire body of Moderates in both houses, as well as the entire Liberal national or Nunez party, would refrain from attending the extraordinary session. As the Moderates and Nationalists comprise more than two-thirds of each house, there will be no quorum. This will block action and prove that the structure of constitutional government no longer exists.

HAVANA, Sept. 25.—Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon informed the Associated Press this afternoon that they were thoroughly disgusted with the petty methods of the government leaders here and the American commissioners admitted that they had practically abandoned hope of bringing peace from the turmoil unless by the use of force.

Secretary Taft's Strong Words.

The government officials, instead of co-operating with the United States to save the republic, have resorted to every kind of obstruction, with the object of confining their control of the administration. President Palma and his advisers have rejected terms of peace which were honorable to them, though in the form of a compromise with their opponents.

We are still striving to arrange a settlement and we trust the American people will give us credit for doing everything possible to accomplish a settlement without resorting to force. I cannot say that we are hopeful, for I have never known a more disgusting situation.

"Investigation convinces us that the elections were thoroughly rotten. We do not want to intervene, but the conditions which we have to face are such that we must. The insurgents have lost control of their forces, which are now lawless bandits that any moment may loot and burn. The situation seems to demand the use of force."

Secretary Taft added that the terms agreed upon retain Palma as president but he had listened to the bad counsel of his cabinet ministers.

Roosevelt Cabled Palma.

The situation here has been cabled to President Roosevelt. President Roosevelt has cabled a resident Palma appealing to the latter's patriotism to accept the terms suggested by Taft and Bacon, as being the only condition under which calm conditions can be restored.

Expect Palma to Design.

Such members of the government as consented to talk on the subject of being placed in the humiliating position of yielding the points President Palma had repeatedly declared he would resign rather than submit. So the government's present alternatives are acceptance of the rebel terms or resignation. As all of the government officials prefer American intervention to government by the present rebels, the national public expectation is that President Palma will resign.

Declined An Interview.

President Palma declined the request this evening of the correspondent of the Associated Press for an interview. It is known, however, that he contemplates a special session of congress, to which he will send the resignation of himself and Mendez Capote. All the Moderate palace officials concede that intervention is at hand. They appear perfectly satisfied with that course, as against delivering the government of the island to their adversaries.

Government Views.

General Freyre Andrade, speaker of the lowerhouse, in conversation with a correspondent of the Associated Press today, made the following statement on behalf of the government of fields:

"Of the Americans wish to take our government and give it to the rebels, they may do so, but not with our consent. We shall never consent to the holding of new elections. It would not only be a great injustice, but if the rebels win, Cuba would have the worst elements in control, and if the government won, we would have another revolution on our hands."

Continuing, the general said that Vice-President Mendez Capote had gone to confer with Secretary Taft and to inform the latter that the Cuban government positively rejected the Liberal proposition laid before President

REPUBLICANS HAVE NO SURE CANDIDATE

First Session of Convention Is Barren of Real Business

EX-GOVERNOR BLACK WILL NOT ALLOW HIS NAME TO BE USED—PARSONS IS MAKING VIGOROUS FIGHT FOR HUGHES AND IS BELIEVED TO HAVE ROOSEVELT'S ENDORSEMENT OF NEW YORK LAWYER.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Anybody's prophecy may turn out to be true regarding the nomination for governor to be made tomorrow by the Republican state convention. It is by no means impossible that the convention may take another recess till later in the day, or even until Thursday.

At midnight the situation was, if possible, more uncertain than ever, in spite of a practically continuous series of conferences by the leaders since 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Parsons Stands by Hughes.

The one apparent certainty was that Herbert Parsons, the leader of the New York county forces, and from the beginning sponsor of the Hughes candidacy, was standing and would continue to stand fast for his man. Against him were arrayed practically all of the up-state leaders.

The indications for the moment were that the up-state strength would be concentrated upon ex-Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff, of Kings. This proposition was the subject of a conference which was the first sign of a break in the confidence of the so-called Higgins forces.

"The name of Hughes will be presented to the convention, you can bank on that," was the emphatic reiteration of Senator Alfred R. Page, Parsons' lieutenant.

Parsons Interviewed.

At midnight this statement was confirmed by Parsons himself in the same words. He was closely questioned by a group of correspondents as to the desirability of the Hughes candidacy, and he said he was in favor of it. He said he was in favor of it. He said he was in favor of it.

"I will repeat my question of today," he said, "have you any doubt where the president stands in this matter?"

"Do you believe the president desires the nomination of Mr. Hughes?" he was asked.

"I believe the president desires the nomination of the strongest man," he answered.

"And do you think Mr. Hughes the strongest man?"

"I—but you must not jump too fast to a conclusion from that statement." The rumors that the national administration was taking an active interest in the convention was given some impetus by the presence here today of Assistant Secretary James B. Reynolds, of the treasury department, who, however, denied that he was here for any special purpose.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The first session of the Republican state convention lasted an hour and a half and was harmonious and comparatively uneventful.

Two episodes, however, occasioned some comment and amusement. One was a brief passage between State Chairman Odell, presiding, and Representative Herbert Parsons, heading the New York county delegation, and the other was the interruption of Temporary Chairman Driscoll's attack upon William R. Hearst, by a young man standing before the front row of delegates, who exclaimed that Hearst had "sacrificed all."

This was hardly noticed, but he repeated in a loud voice that Hearst had "sacrificed fifteen million dollars."

The delegates were indignant and the man was ejected.

Mob Law Denounced.

Still another extraordinary incident was the adoption of a resolution deploring race hatred and mob law "at home or abroad."

The resolution attracted the more attention because it was presented by a colored delegate, Charles W. Anderson, deputy collector of internal revenue at New York, an "additional member of the state committee."

Anderson asked unanimous consent to the reception of the resolution. By this time the delegates had come to realize that the resolution applied not only to lynching and mob violence affecting the negro race, but also to the anti-Jewish rioting in Russia, and there was a clamor for its reception.

Chairman Odell put the question and the resolution was carried amid cheers.

Platt and Dewey Absent.

Neither of the two United States senators, Platt and Dewey, who have attended every Republican state convention for a generation, was present today.

Post-Conference Conference.

For several hours after the session the Republican leaders were in close conference canvassing the situation and endeavoring to reach an agreement or adjust differences before the convention meets tomorrow for the purpose of completing its business by the nomination of a state ticket, but it was announced that no conclusion had been reached.

The important matter discussed was the governorship, but the position of former members took cannot accurately be stated, save for the fact that a large proportion of them favored Lieutenant Governor Bruce, and that Herbert Parsons was almost alone in his advocacy of Charles E. Hughes.

Black Will Not Run.

An indication of the doubt in which the situation remains, is the fact that no speakers have yet been selected to place candidates in nomination, but as matters stand this evening, it would seem that the nomination for governor was still between Bruce and Hughes. There were repeated rumors during the day of the talk about Frank S. Black, and several attempts were made to arrange a program to secure his nomination. Black from the first discouraged the use of his name and made his declaration so positive that few of the up-state leaders believe he is really a possibility.

Convention Proceedings.

Ex-Governor B. B. Odell, chairman of the state committee, called the convention to order at 12:30 o'clock. After some preliminary business, the committee on temporary organization submitted its report, naming Representative Michael E. Driscoll of Syracuse for temporary chairman. The report was adopted and Driscoll took the chair.

In addressing the convention, Driscoll paid an enthusiastic tribute to the Republican party and its national and state policies and leaders. He asserted that the Democrats themselves, as the years roll by, are "enlightened by the logic of events and admit the wisdom of nearly all the important acts of their opponents."

Praise for Roosevelt.

He also declared that the majority of Democrats secretly, if not openly, admit "the general necessity of the defeat of Bryan in 1896." They also admit, he said, "our wisdom in electing to the same exalted office that fearless worker and finished scholar, stainless protector of the people's rights and incomparable executive, Theodore Roosevelt." They say, he is a good enough Democrat for them, and we answer that he is a good enough Republican for us."

Driscoll's speech was frequently interrupted by applause. His mention of President Roosevelt brought the convention to its feet, shouting, cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs. The cheers were dying out when the New York county delegation leaped to its feet and wound up the applause with three ringing cheers.

Work of Congress.

Driscoll dwelt at some length on the recent acts of congress, for the achievements and faults of which he said the Republican party must bear the credit and accept the responsibility, since all the great measures could have been passed without assistance from the Democratic side, and the fact that they approved and supported them indicated on their part an unusual good degree of good sense and patriotism.

He touched upon the punishment of grafters, the bringing to book of powerful offenders, the situation in Cuba and incidentally expressed a high opinion of Secretary Taft.

Turning to state issues, Chairman Driscoll pointed out the importance of the coming election in New York, in view of the "certain demoralization and disaster which would follow the triumph of one of our opposing candidates."

Good Word for Higgins.

He praised Governor Higgins as a man and public official and commended his administration throughout.

When Driscoll mentioned the name of Governor Higgins the convention cheered heartily, but a little later when he spoke of the administration of state affairs having been "independent of houses," there was a roar of laughter. State Chairman Odell, whose eyes were wandering over the audience, turned quickly and looked sharply at the speaker, but his face showed no emotion.

IN CUBA SURE

Palma by Taft and Bacon last night. President Palma would resign, said Andrade, if the step was suggested by the American officials, but he would never be a party to holding new elections. Furthermore, no members of the Moderate party would go to the polls if a new election is held in January as contemplated.

Solution Proposed.—The general was then asked what would be his solution of the problem and he replied, distinctly and impressively: "I see only one satisfactory way out of it—for the United States to take control of Cuba for one, or two, or possibly four years. The right kind of government here cannot survive now without such control. There must be a re-construction period, after the civil war. Yielding to the rebels now cannot bring contentment and reliability, and would only antagonize all the better elements, which, as it is well known, side with the Moderates."

Partially Charged.—Senator Dolz said: "We think the demands of the Liberals unjust, and that the American commissioners are showing partiality in accepting them." T. Manuel Despeigne, the administrator of customs, said: "The Liberal terms are impossible. The only way to fight it out. The government will be victorious."

He also complained of the alleged partiality of the American commissioners for the Liberals, which is generally held by the Moderates and government officials.

Liberals' Demands.—Senator Zayas, the Liberal leader, informed the Associated Press today that yesterday there were nine points of difference between the Liberals and the American commissioners, but he regarded these as being easily adjusted. This morning, Taft revised the terms decided upon, in order to meet the desires of the insurgents. Senator Zayas took a draft of them to the Presidio, to be considered by the whole committee. This afternoon, Senator Zayas informed the Associated Press that there were two main points upon which the Liberals must insist, one of them being a practical enforcement of the dissolution of the armed forces, and the other being general amnesty for all participants in the revolution.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Fifteen hundred more American marines were ordered to Cuba today by the navy department. Five hundred marines from the Atlantic fleet will sail tomorrow on the battleships Indiana and Kentucky from Provincetown, Mass., 800 or 900 marines will sail on Thursday from Boston, Norfolk and Philadelphia, and the remainder will probably leave New Orleans for Havana on a Morgan line steamer scheduled to leave there Sunday.

Numbers Were Increased.—Orders were first issued for 1000 marines from the various stations along the Atlantic coast to proceed to Cuba, but, following dispatches from Secretary Taft indicating that he has little hope of an amicable settlement of the troubles in Cuba, 500 additional marines from the North Atlantic fleet were instructed to prepare for Cuban service.

More Sailors, Too.—In addition to the marines, 2000 more bluejackets will be sent to Cuba. As there are now 1200 marines in Cuba and over 3000 bluejackets, when the vessels sailing this week arrive in Havana, the United States will be ready to land a force of more than 7000 on Cuban soil.

The American warships which will sail on Thursday will be the cruiser Brooklyn, now at League Island navy yard, Philadelphia; the battleship Texas, which is being repaired hastily at the Norfolk navy yard, and the converted cruiser Prairie, which is at Boston. The Prairie will carry marines from Portsmouth, Boston and Newport. The Morgan liner will carry Pensacola and New Orleans marines. The cruiser Columbia, on which Secretary Root is returning to this country from Columbia, will be available for the use of troops not later than Tuesday next.

Army Department Busy.—So far, the preparations for trouble which may come about in Cuba, have been largely carried on by the navy, but today more than any previous time, the army shared the activity of the navy department.

Bids were opened today at a number of western points for several thousand horses and mules to be shipped to the army within fifteen days, and no detail is being overlooked which could assist the troops, in case they are called upon for assistance. Unlimited supplies are available at a number of western depots. It can be said on good authority that orders looking to the mobilization of troops have been received at the war department. Every bureau of the department is humming with the work of preparing for any eventuality of the difficulty that may arise.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 25.—Plans for the transfer of troops from the United States to Cuba in the event of the failure of Secretary Taft's mission to bring about a peaceful solution of the trouble in the island republics, have been completed.

The final step was taken today, according to an announcement made here tonight, when the transport Sumner, now lying at the New York navy yard, was put in commission. The Sumner is in readiness for the immediate embarkation of troops. Negotiations are already under way for the acquisition of merchant steamers to be used as transports.

That the events of today, as told in the press dispatches, have hastened plans which have been long in preparation seems apparent. Additional warships will reach Cuba within a few days and will be ready to land marines if necessary long before the regular troops now awaiting orders can be moved. Should armed intervention come, these forces will undoubtedly form the vanguard of the invading army.

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—The crisis in the situation in Cuba and the subsequent efforts of the navy department at Washington in place at the disposal of Secretary Taft every possible assistance, resulted today in scenes of activity at the various navy yards in New England, such as have not been equalled since the Spanish-American war.

The navy yards at Charlestown and Portsmouth, N. H., and the training station at Newport, R. I., received telegraphic instructions from Secretary Bonaparte directing that every available marine be sent to Philadelphia forthwith. Rear Admiral R. D. Evans' fleet of battleships now stationed at Provincetown, was called upon by Secretary Bonaparte to aid in the preparations for Cuban service and the battleships Indiana and Kentucky sailed for Havana at 7 o'clock tonight.

The vessels took nearly 3000 marines, the entire number attached to the North Atlantic squadron. Both vessels were cheered as they passed through the fleet on their way around the cape.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The greatest efforts are being made to reinforce the American marines now in Cuban waters and there have been almost continuous conferences for the last twenty-four hours between the chief of the navigation bureau and the commandant of marines relative to the speedy transportation of this advance guard of the American forces which is to occupy the Cuban ports in the event that the pending negotiations at Havana fail.

As a result of these conferences, to which acting Secretary Newberry was a party, 1000 extra marines were ordered to be assembled at once at Atlantic coast ports preparatory to sailing for Havana. It was at first proposed that these marines should sail tomorrow, but it was found that they would be delayed about two days while the warships which are to transport them are being made ready.

The men will be concentrated chiefly at Norfolk, Va., and League Island, Pa. Probably all of the marines on the Atlantic coast stations will have to be employed to meet this draft. Those at the smaller southern naval stations and yards will probably be transported by some of the Morgan line steamers, the navy department having practically completed an arrangement with the company for quick service in this emergency.

MODIFYING MEAT LAW

Imported Meat Products Not Affected.
Mince-meat Is Decided Not to Be a Meat Product Under the Law.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A decision has been reached by the department of justice that the meat inspection law recently enacted by congress does not apply to foreign meat products shipped into this country. The question was raised by importers of foreign meats and meat products.

The department of agriculture held that the law applied to these products and permitted inspectors of the department to pass on domestic meat products. The question, however, was referred to the department of commerce for an opinion. The opinion was prepared several days ago and submitted to Attorney General Moody. He concurred, it is understood, in the opinion prepared by the department.

Secretary Wilson today, in response to many inquiries on the subject, so far modified the meat inspection regulations to hold that mince-meat is not a meat product. It has developed on investigation that the percentage of meat in mince-meat is so small as to bring it within the exempted class. The new rules go into effect October 1st.

Railroad Fatalities and Woundings.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—During the year ended June 30, 1923, according to a statement issued today by the interstate commerce commission, an average of twenty-six people were killed a day, and 233 injured a day, on railroads in the United States.

ATLANTA'S
RACE RIOTS*Day Passed Without Serious Disturbance.*Total Death Roll Includes One White Man and Eighteen Negroes.

ATLANTA, Sept. 25.—The known dead, who have met death in connection with the riots here since last Saturday night, number one white man, County Policeman James Heard, and eighteen negroes. To this number might be added the name of Mrs. Robert P. Thompson, an estimable white woman, who dropped dead Monday evening, after seeing two negroes shot and beaten in front of her home.

This, the third day of Atlanta's race war, has passed without serious disturbances. Rumors by the hundreds have been brought to the attention of the authorities, but not a single instance has any of the horrible tales been verified. The papers here have united in an agreement only to print established facts and to issue no more extras or specials on the riot, and the agreement is being lived up to.

Following the arrest of 257 negroes at Brownsville and Clark University today, and the detention of about 100 of these in the county jail, the feeling prevailed that at last peace has been restored by a strong show of authority. Almost simultaneously, two negroes were killed in another distant part of the city, by three policemen who had been sent to stop them from shooting.

The main events during the day have been the entering into the city of four companies of state militia from outside points, Governor Terrell saying the order was given as a matter of precaution, rather than from any pressing necessity, and the gathering of a large crowd of negroes in the city executive building, where the city executive regarding negro resorts and saloons. The resolutions demanded that these places be closed and kept closed perpetually.

The saloons have been closed all day and will be until further notice. There is an increasing scarcity of negroes in factories, stores, in the postoffice and telegraph offices. Hundreds of Atlanta homes are without their regular cooks and ice deliveries are conspicuous by their rarity.

Following the killing late last night of Policeman Heard and the serious wounding of three other members of the county police, Colonel Clifford Anderson, commanding the state militia, decided on a raid of the settlement known as Brownsville, in the southern part of the city, where the shooting occurred. Brownsville is the home of about 1800 negroes.

With four companies of militia, about forty-five of the county police force and the governor's house guards, the place was surrounded about 5 o'clock this morning. Two hundred and fifty seven negroes were placed under arrest and a search was begun for arms and ammunition. About thirty negroes were found armed and sent to the police barracks under heavy guard.

When the negroes were found they were surrounded, many made desperate attempts to escape. One negro was killed and another wounded in such attempts. One of the first to be arrested was J. L. Prior, the negro postmaster, who is charged with supplying ammunition to negroes. It is asserted that one of those arrested was a student connected with Clark university. The negroes wounded in the fight with the county police earlier in the night were found dead later. They were tracked by blood stains into the woods where their bodies were found.

In a desperate battle at close range between Bicycle Officers Smith and Madrox and Policemen Casen and two negroes barricaded in a house near the corner of McGrunder and Randolph streets this morning, the negroes were killed and the police officers had narrow escapes.

Officers Madrox and Smith had been in the vicinity of Houston and Randolph streets early this morning. When they reached the scene there was no shooting, but they were told that the difficulty was in the vicinity of Randolph and McGrunder streets. Whether this was a trap laid to all the officers is not known, but a negro informed them where the house was in which a negro who had done the shooting had taken refuge.

The officers went to the house, Officer Smith going to the rear door and Officer Madrox to the front. Officer Smith attempted to enter and the negroes began shooting. Policeman Madrox ran around the house to his aid. As he did so he saw two negroes leaning out of the window firing at them. The officers returned the fire and the negroes dropped behind the window.

Officer Casen had come up in the meantime and the three charged the house. Officer Madrox went to the window and pulled himself up, gun in hand and he fired point-blank and dropped to the ground, pulling the window down with him. He then ran to the door and broke it open, his brother officers running with him. As he opened the door a gun was thrust into his face and he lodged a bullet passed over his head. He and the other officers then fired, killing the two negroes.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—In a dispatch from Lucknow the correspondent of the Standard says that a boat containing 200 persons capsized in midstream while crossing the river Indus at a point where it separates the northwest frontier province from the Attock district. The passengers were swept down the stream and only thirty were saved.

The government has also appropriated $250,000 to complete the breaker at the port at Mazatlan, on the Pacific coast, toward which the Mexican Central is extending its line from Guadalajara.

VISALIA LOSES AGAINST

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—In a decision rendered today, the Supreme court decided against the city of Visalia, an action brought to restrain the officials of the municipality from selling the poles and wires of the Western Union corporation under a judgment for taxes levied. The opinion handed down holds that the streets whereupon the property is located are public highways and that the state, or any subdivision thereof, has no right to levy a tax upon a franchise such as is held by the telegraph company.

SWITCHMEN'S UNION
MAY CAUSE STRIKE*Six Thousand Railroad Employees Will Be Called Out If Demands Are Refused.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 25.—Six thousand railway men will be affected by the action of the Switchmen's Union of North America, which has submitted a list of grievances to Division Superintendents in this city simultaneously with the same action at railroad centers throughout the country.

A committee of three from every division in the Pittsburgh district called on the respective superintendents and left a printed copy of the grievances which they want remedied and the new scale of wages which they wished placed in effect. No time limit was set for an answer to the demands, but it is understood that if no answer is forthcoming within thirty days, the wardmen will take some action to enforce the granting of their requests.

Railroad officials will not discuss the situation at present.

CHICAGO CITY COUNCIL ENDORSED SCHEME OF POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The city council last night passed a resolution endorsing and endorsing the movement to establish United States postal savings banks. The resolution cites the wrecking of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank as one of the reasons why such a law should be enacted, and urges the representatives of Chicago to assist in the work of establishing these banks by their influence and votes.

STENSLAND GOING HOME*Chicago Bank Wrecker Left New York City.*He Waived Extradition and Was at Once Taken to the Depot.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Paul O. Stensland, self confessed embezzler of funds from the Milwaukee Avenue State bank of Chicago, of which he was president, is on his way to Chicago, a passenger on the Twentieth Century Limited, determined to secure others whom he claims were equally culpable for the wrecking of the institution and its attendant losses of millions of dollars. Last night and early today, Stensland was a prisoner at police headquarters, but his prominence afforded him no privileges whatsoever.

Following a sleepless night in a cheerless cell, in which a pine board was the only resting place, he was lined up with a score of pickpockets and other petty criminals and forced to pass in review before the detective sergeants. There he was measured and photographed for the headquarters gallery.

After that, conditions changed for Stensland. He was escorted without physical restraint to the district attorney's office and turned over to the custody of Chicago detectives. Under these officers, his freedom became more pronounced. After he waived his extradition rights, he was taken to a Broadway hotel for luncheon with his son, Theodore Stensland, and later for a walk down Broadway to Fifth avenue.

Stensland's condition, both mental and physical, seemed vastly improved over the morning, when he was in a state of partial collapse. He appeared pained at the prospect of getting back to Chicago. With Stensland on the train, which is due at Chicago tomorrow morning, are Assistant State's Attorney Olsen, Detective Sergeant Kinder, who is personally responsible for Stensland, and the son. The final word of the returning official as he left New York, was that he was glad to get back to help in closing the bank's affairs. He wanted to protect innocent people, he declared, to incriminate those who should be incriminated, and to show the Chicago public that he was not the black sheep they had him painted.

FRESNO PLAYS
SEATTLE TODAY*Team to Play Six Weeks at Home.*Fisher Says Fresno Can Stay in Coast League as Long as She Wants to.

Coast League Standing.
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Portland	90	50	.647
San Francisco	75	63	.543
Seattle	72	60	.521
Los Angeles	74	69	.516
Oakland	65	80	.449
Fresno	54	95	.362

The baseball season in Fresno opened again this afternoon, when the Fresno and Seattle Pacific Coast League teams will play at Recreation Park. Both teams arrived here on the Owl last night and all is in readiness for a big reception to the Rainier Batters today.

The Fresno club will be at home the rest of the season and the local fans will have an opportunity of seeing some of the best baseball ever seen here. The home team will be pitted against the three leaders of the league, Portland, Seattle and San Francisco, the entire time.

Today's game will be ended at 3 o'clock and Fitzgerald and Vickers will be on the slab. Rubo Vickers is considered in many ways the best pitcher in the league and Fitzgerald has won laurels for himself in the box this season. Sunday there will be a double header for one admission, the first game beginning at 2 o'clock.

Although the home team comes home at the foot of the percentage column, Mike says that the support that Fresno has given her baseball team has been the talk of the country. "I am not coming home with any umpire talk," said Mike last night, "but I can truthfully say that the Fresno club has had the hardest luck this season that ever followed a ball team. We have never been given the best of it by the umpires, and we have had hard luck in other ways. It was those two weeks in Oakland that put us in the bad. Harry Walters had hurt himself in Portland and McGregor was out of the game with blood poisoning and I had a hard time to get pitchers. I tried to nearly every young fellow that came to my attention, but they didn't make good. I now have Hoag, Fitzgerald and McGregor and Walters will be in the game before the end of the week. O'Banion was released Saturday night in Portland.

"This talk of Fresno not being in the league next season is all the talk of some disgruntled fellows. Fresno can stay in the Pacific Coast League as long as she wants to. With all this talk of dissatisfaction, we have not heard a single howl from Fresno, Seattle and Los Angeles, both big cities, have been hushing, but Fresno has not sent out a howl. Fresno gave Seattle as much money when she was here for a week there as Seattle gave any team for a week there."

"Judge McCredie, president of the league, told men that he has a very warm spot in his heart for Fresno. He will never forget the way that Fresno treated his team in the week after the San Francisco fire when the boys were in distress. The league is in good shape and Fresno can stay in it as long as she wants to. It is up to the people here. If we can get good support these final six weeks I can develop some young fellows for the slab and we can get a good start next season."

Russ Hall brings Rubo Vickers, Oscar Jones and Virgil Garvin with him for the slab. The rest of the team is the same that he had here last time. Derrick, a new umpire for Fresno, will handle the indicator today. He has been officiating in Seattle for the past month, having been taken from the Northwest league.

All the Fresno ball players are in good condition. Walters was not hurt so badly as was thought at first and will be in the game before the end of the week. Mike has planned some great things for his Sunday games. He has made arrangements with the railroad companies to run excursions every Sunday from all points within a radius of 100 miles and says that people will be clamoring for admission to the double headers.

Get your lungs in good shape, for today's game will be a great one. Fresno is anxious to win this, the first game at home for some time, and Russ Hall is determined that he will carry off the victory.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.—R. A. Tuttle, attorney for Adolph Weber, the Auburn murderer, who will be hanged Thursday unless the governor intervenes, will make a final appeal for a thirty days extension of reprieve for his client tomorrow, on the ground, first, that Weber is insane, and second, that evidence has come to light showing that there is probable cause to suspect that another person committed the murder.

Attorney Tuttle has learned that some time before the murder of the Weber family, Weber the elder had employed a man to do some work; that there was a dispute about remuneration; and that the man, whose name he does not give, threatened to kill the entire family. It is understood that both Tuttle and Attorney Grove L. Johnson of this city will make affidavit that Weber is insane.

BECAUSE THEY ARE HUSTLERS

Is Reason for American Medical's Rapid Graduation.

Returning Doctor Compares Studies of American and European Students.

"The reason why an American medical student gets through his course of training masters his medical curriculum, and graduates and is fairly launched upon his profession before his European colleague has finished with the elementary stage; is because of everything else American. It's the inherent hustle of the American—his greedy grasp of things within reach, that lead to make himself a success; and his consummate thirst for the requisite knowledge by which national superiority is attained. Put it in other words, and after comparing the medical student of mature age in the Old World with the smart youngsters of this country seen with sheepskins under their arms before they are barely out of their twenties, the difference can be seen and the cause for it found in the mental agility to 'get there.' This can be easily witnessed by a comparison of the studies of American students in Europe with those of natives."

This is the view of Dr. J. R. Walker, who has just returned from an extended tour of the leading clinics of Europe on a course of special studies in ear, eye and throat diseases. Dr. Walker left Fresno with his wife and child about eight months ago and his itinerary embraced London, Paris, Germany, Switzerland and Alsace-Lorraine. In response to a question as to why it happens that the student of Europe seldom qualifies for medical practice before he is well up toward thirty years, he summed it up in a general outline of the American character.

It has been a matter of frequent comment and speculation that the American law or medical student outdistances the student of the European colleges by perfection in studies by several years, at the end of which time, on graduation, the American holds a degree, while the other is simply qualified by the granting of a license to practice. In explaining this point in detail, Dr. Walker stated that, where the American works with feverish haste all day and far into the night, the European student is content with the results of each day's deliberate study and research, and is perfectly willing to let it rest at that when his stipulated hours of a short day's work comes to an end.

As in the case of most other medical men of the Continent who visit Europe for perfection in their studies, Dr. Walker spent the greater part of his time in London on hospital work in the poorer districts of London. For the purpose of his specialties he spent some time in the eye, ear and throat hospital for indigents in Moorfields. The congested population of London's poor, places within reach of a varied class of disease, from which considerable experience of great value to science is gained, and the hospital of the poor forms the Mecca of the traveler in search of new knowledge. Next in interest to the London climate was Freiburg, where Dr. Walker met Professor Killian of the Albert Ludwig university, who has stepped into the front row of medical science as a specialist by his method of diagnosing pulmonary and bronchial diseases by means of a tube inserted in the throat which is lighted with electricity and reflected in plain view. Of other points visited by the doctor were the Rhine, Berlin, Paris, Lucerne and Strasburg and Liverpool, where he embarked for the United States.

MARINE DESERTIONS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Special Patrol Squad Will Search for and Arrest Men from Mare Island.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Marines have been deserting the barracks on Mare Island, California, at a rate which made it necessary for Brigadier General G. F. Elliott, commanding the marine corps, to detail a second lieutenant and several experienced enlistee men as a squad whose sole duty it is to search San Francisco for deserters from the marine corps.

So great has been the demand for laborers in San Francisco that representatives of labor agencies have been visiting Mare Island, urging the marines to desert; the service, and engage in work in San Francisco, where all-bodied men are paid as high as $5 a day for wheeling brick and mortar and doing other work necessary to clear the city of debris.

Appeals by the marine corps to the San Francisco police were futile. The policemen refused to arrest marines who deserted the service and engaged in work in San Francisco.

Finally the situation became so desperate that the commandant at Mare Island appealed to General Elliott for assistance and he authorized the creation of the squad, which is patrolling the city and picking up marine deserters.

"MY TOMBOY GIRL" AT THE BARTON

The Ellefords will tonight again present that great comedy melodrama of Charles E. Blaney, entitled "My Tomboy Girl," a play that is worth seeing, as it is full of comedy and strong situations. There is also the Devil's Gulch and the Jersey ferry landing in New York. Specialties will be in order by Mattie Lloyd Lane and the Osborne children.

"For Her Children's Sake" will be the matinee attraction, on which occasion the Osbornes will hold a reception upon the Barton stage. Immediately after the matinee performance there will also be given out souvenirs of the Osbornes. Seats now on sale for the balance of the engagement.

TO OPEN PARK NEXT YEAR

Public May Use Driveways at Roading's.

Commissioners Plan Artificial Lake and Other Improvements.

Roading park will be thrown open to the public for driving after the spring rains next year. This was decided upon yesterday afternoon after a tour of inspection to the park made by Johannes Reimers, city landscape gardener, Mayor Lyon and Park Commissioners Chambers and Freeman.

Definite plans for the improvements that are to be made in the park this winter were also decided upon on yesterday's trip, and if present schemes are carried through it will not be long before the park can be used for pleasure purposes of all kinds.

The main work to be done this winter is the fixing of the driveways and the building of an artificial lake. The lake is to be 1300 feet long and is to cover ten acres of ground. It will wind through several islands planted in veritable gardens of roses and other flowers. The water for the lake will be taken from a ditch and will be pumped into the reservoir and flow naturally out at the lower end, thus ensuring fresh water all the time.

The preparing of the basin for the lake is no small problem, as some of the soil is so sandy to hold water for any length of time. It is proposed to oil the surface of the bottom of the lake and to work the oil into the ground to form a natural base able to hold water. The sides of the lake will be planted to lawns and rose gardens.

Besides the making of the lake, which will call for an outlay of considerable money, the preparing of the driveways will be a piece of work to be undertaken this winter. The roads are to be oiled and planted on the borders with bright colored flowers.

The park commission also contemplates the plotting of lawns this winter and the laying of pipes to water the grass when it is planted. The lawns will not be planted until the trees are large enough to afford some substantial shade.

"I was really agreeably surprised," said Mayor Lyon last night in discussing his trip to Roading park. "I confess that I was somewhat of a Doubting Thomas concerning the success of the venture. I did not think that the land in the park would grow big trees. The growth there is something marvelous. The last wind did considerable damage to the park, blowing down some of the trees and snapping the tops off of others, but the trees are planted so closely together that we can spare some. They were planted with that idea."

"After today's trip I am of the opinion that there is no finer land in the State for park purposes and that Fresno will some day have a park as beautiful as Golden Gate park in San Francisco."

close. I saw rose bushes today fully in bloom high covered with beautiful flowers."

"RED CROSS NURSE" PLOTTED IN CUBA

Size of the Stage Limited Numbers of American Army.

The semi-military play, "The Red Cross Nurse," was presented last night by the Ellefords before a large Tuesday night audience that took most kindly to the play. The hero is played by True Boardman, and the villain by William Marion. Each part was commendably presented. George Hernandez as Sergeant Rafferty has a part suited to him and he does it full justice. Miss Melita Chamberlain has the leading female role. Phyllis Delevan, as the "Red Cross Nurse," played it admirably. Mattie Lloyd Lane was very clever as Maud Travers, and her song was received with much favor. The role of Wally Astorbilt was acceptably played by Lloyd Edwards.

The rest of the cast were equal to their different parts. The play is a strong one and full of interest throughout. The scene in Cuba was well carried out, except that it would have been a trifle more exciting if the United States army had been larger.

The Osborne children gained new laurels with their "soldier boy" specialty.

BIG YEAR IN STREET WORK

Over Thirty Miles Oiled this Year.

Oiling of Streets to Be Discontinued Soon—To Complete Work Next Year.

With the cold season near at hand, Superintendent of Streets Spencer announces that he will soon discontinue the work of oiling streets and hold the oil on hand for the filling of holes which will be cut out during the winter and spring.

The work of oiling streets has been done more thoroughly this year than it has ever been done before, over 30 miles of streets having been oiled and sanded in the past two months. This is the first year that streets have been sanded after having been oiled and in most cases the streets are passable within two or three days after the oil has been put on them.

This sanding of the streets has cost considerably more than the old way of fixing streets, but Mr. Spencer says that it is cheaper in the end and points as an example to F street which he fixed last year at quite a little expense to the city and upon which nothing has been expended this year. The sand mixes in with the oil and forms a cake that is like a pavement and will not come off with the passing of vehicles or a downpour of rain.

All the streets in the northern part of town have been oiled and sanded this year from I to P streets inclusive, and from Fresno street north bordering Tulare, Kern, Inyo and Mono streets and Frolich and Jensen avenues. Thirty-eight cars of oil in all have been used leaving eleven cars more for the season's work. The approach of cold weather makes the oil clot and roll when it hits the street and Mr. Spencer will discontinue the work of oiling in a few days.

The rest of the oil will be run into pits and mixed with sand to form a cake that can be used to fill in holes during the rainy season.

Mr. Spencer will make an effort to have the City Trustees let a contract for oil early in the season next year and expects to finish work on the streets early. He will grade the streets now filled in above grade, and put oil on them before the summer months, thus rendering any great expense for street work unnecessary for several years.

For Senate and Assembly.
MARYSVILLE, Sept. 25.—Jo D. Spruell of Chico was nominated this afternoon for state senator from the Sixth district by the Democratic convention held in this city. The district comprises Butte, Yuba, Sutter and Yolo counties. John P. Onstott Jr. of Sutter county was nominated for assemblyman from the Eighth district, comprising Yuba and Sutter counties.

Suits Worth $15 to $18 for $12.50

Enthusiasm increases as these suits sell for $12.20—Pleased customers tell their friends and in come their friends, and so the good news spreads. As fast as one lot is sold out, new ones are arriving, and not an unworthy garment among them. All new, snappy styles.

To the best of our knowledge, these are positively the greatest suit values ever offered in Fresno. The mere fact that they are strictly all wool, guaranteed to hold their shape and color, and selling at $12.50 is sufficient in itself. No need of another word—Our part is done—time, BUT TO COME, and COME IN TIME.

TODAY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25TH, IS THE LAST DAY TO REGISTER. GO TO THE COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE, OR TO THE HEADQUARTERS OF YOUR PARTY TODAY AND REGISTER, OR LOSE YOUR VOTE.

KILLING A PARTY.

The Democratic party has been killed and buried so many times that the process has lost all its solemnity, and has become a mere matter of amusement, both to the corpse and the grave-diggers. The funeral is being rehearsed once more in New York, and this time it begins to look like the genuine article. The program is to nominate Hearst today. The men who are going to nominate him frankly acknowledge that they do not believe in him or his principles, but they think he is the strongest vote-getter, so they are going to try to win with him. What! Not a Democratic victory, surely, for to elect a man already nominated by an anti-Democratic party, on a platform in which Democrats do not believe, may be to "win," but the thing won is not a Democratic victory. And Jerome, who is to lead the forlorn fight to prevent Hearst's nomination, said last night, "So far as I can understand the political situation in the Democratic party in this state, a gang of disreputable crooks, and I use that term advisedly, are in control." With one faction acknowledging their own immorality, and the other faction impugning their honesty, choosing a candidate who does not even profess loyalty to the party which nominated him, the prospects of harmony are all, and the prospects even of party survival are small. There is a certain block of votes in New York city which can be delivered by Tammany to anybody. Added to these, Hearst will not get any more votes as a Democratic candidate than he would have got anyway as an Independence League candidate. If he should win, it would be a League victory, and would complete the absorption of the Democratic party in the Independence League. If he should lose, the Democratic party will be involved in the destruction of the League. If the Republicans nominate a candidate even partially respectable, by methods even approximately decent, he will receive the votes of practically all the Democratic Democrats in New York.

It will be a strange muddle, here in California, with Hearst and his league endorsed by the Democratic party in New York and read out of the party in California. But it is only a symptom of the prevailing chaos. Nobody knows any longer what a Democrat is, and consequently it is not strange that the same man should be in and out of the party at the same time, with different definitions. The Hearst nomination in New York will infuse new life in the Langdon campaign, which had started out a fizzle. The whole muddle will complete the disruption of the party here, and will hand the election to Gillett on a gold platter, instead of the silver one we had looked for.

A NATION'S SUICIDE.

American intervention in Cuba is already an accomplished fact. The present government has abdicated, and there will be no other government until we set one up. There is just one bare chance of setting up a government and getting out. If we put the revolutionists in office, they will cease to revolt, and if the deposed faction then submits, and the wandering gangs of handbills spontaneously reform, we may then get out until the next trouble calls us back. It is only a chance, and a thin one, hardly worth the trouble of hoping for. It could scarcely be more than temporary, and if we must have the job of governing Cuba we might as well take it now.

The whole situation is, as Secretary Taft called it, "dilatating." The Cuban nation is wantonly committing suicide. The government in power undertakes to maintain itself in power by farcical and dishonest election. Now that it is threatened with honest elections, the announcement is that the officials will precipitate chaos, for the purpose of compelling American control. They would rather 'their country be a foreign satrapy than submit to an honest election by their own people. And they will doubtless have their way.

Here is a lesson to those who are advocating a Cuban policy in the Philippines. How long would it be if we once got out of the archipelago that we would be back again?

It is universally conceded that the problem of self-government in the Philippines is far more difficult than in Cuba. Cuba is one island, with one people, one language, one religion, one history, one civilization and one national feeling. For any people capable of self-government at all the problem is simple there. And we need not set too high a standard of fitness for self-government. Take this definition:

"Any nation is fit for self-government which is able to choose rulers to whose rule it will submit."

That is a simple and conclusive test. By it the Cubans, with their simple problem, have failed. But take the Philippines. Thousands of islands, 34 distinct tribes with as many languages, several religions, every grade of civilization, from naked savages and stock-running pirates to cultured Christian gentlemen, with no common history or sense of national unity—a situation in which civilized men of the very highest grade could not possibly maintain self-government. Wipe all the Filipino tribes out of the islands. Plant Germans on one island, French on another, Russians on another, and on others Chinese, Japanese, selected intelligent American negroes, Turks, Armenians and samples of all the races of Europe—all peoples capable of self-government. Dump them chaotically on these islands and command them to form a national government for the whole. They would find it impossible even to make a beginning. The less capable Filipino tribes, with an even more difficult task, would of course be absolutely helpless. If we should thrust the problem on them, they would throw it back in our faces in six months.

CONVENTIONS IN WISCONSIN

Democrats and Republicans In Session.

La Follette Forces Were In Minority on First Test Ballots.

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 25.—Wisconsin's Democratic nominees in convention assembled for the first time under the provisions of the new primary election law, today adopted the same platform that was constructed at their state convention in Milwaukee in June, re-elected H. D. Manson of Wausau chairman of the state central committee, and after listening to campaign speeches, adjourned.

The first contest in the convention came when a motion as to procedure of business in the convention was offered. The result showed the Davidson-Conger strength to be 38 votes to 43 for the La Follette-Torrey forces.

The convention at 1 o'clock (Wednesday) morning adopted a platform. The platform declares for the readjustment of tariff schedules in all cases where protection is employed for the benefit of capital to the injury of the consumer and the working man; endorses the past administration of Governor B. M. La Follette; endorses Governor James O. Davidson's administration and favors enactment of a law for the regulation of life insurance.

BIG COLONIZATION SCHEME

Fresno Business Men Form a Corporation to Put 16,000

Acres on the Market—Campaign for Settlers Will Be Made in the East.

Another big colonization enterprise, which has been several weeks in the forming, was launched yesterday. A number of Fresno business men and L. B. Cory, a well-known real estate promoter of Los Angeles, have got hold of 16,000 acres of land twelve miles south of town and have formed a corporation to colonize the big holding in subdivisions to settlers. A campaign will be started at once to bring in settlers to this country. This is the second big colonization scheme to be undertaken in Fresno within the last year or so, the first being the Fresno Irrigated Farms. Mr. Cory, who will handle the big proposition, has already an organized force of agents in the East to send out settlers for the land. Twenty-five men will join the project in the East and a mail will be sent to England to interest those sturdy people in Fresno county. The land will be sold for fruit, vine and alfalfa raising and particular stress will be laid upon its suitability for dairying.

The land lies to the west of the town of Corcoran and the Southern Pacific west side line from Kern to Hanford traverses it diagonally. The land was secured from a number of owners by Cory, who has interested local business men in it. The purchase price is not given out, but it is said that the big holdings were secured at a bargain. The land is high and, while the Consolidated Canal companies reach it with the end of their Fowler switch system, the plans of the promoters are to pump most of the water for irrigating purposes. Pumping is already well developed in that country, there being twenty plants in adjoining country under cultivation. The water is twelve feet from the surface and there is said to be an unlimited supply.

The corporation, the papers of which were filed yesterday by M. B. Harris, the attorney, is to be known as the Fresno Colonization company, and it is proposed to make it a permanent institution, for when this tract is disposed of it is the intention to settle up other big properties. The capitalization is $250,000 and the shares are $1000 each. The directors are A. V. Lisenby, Dr. T. M. Hayden, James Porteous, W. A. Conn, Calvin Pearson, H. A. Pratt and T. J. Hammond.

The subscribers to the stock and the amount taken are: A. V. Lisenby, 20 shares; T. M. Hayden, 10; James Porteous, 20; W. A. Conn, 5; Calvin Pearson, 5; H. A. Pratt, 10; T. J. Hammond, 10; W. J. Kittrell, 5; J. F. Hoefler, 3; M. B. Harris, 3; W. E. Van Emom, 5; Thomas Boyd, 3; J. E. Turner, 5; Pete Drogo, 10; C. H. Rieger, 3; C. L. McLean, 3; J. E. Burgess, 2; G. E. Burwell, 3; O. L. Markley, 6; W. W. Parsons, 5.

But if any should not care to pay in another dollar, it would be practically impossible to enforce payment by suit, as the cost of the suit would be $6, not to mention lawyer's fees, and each suit would have to be brought separately. The directors took the position that they were responsible for the condition affairs had got into because they did not use the same business methods in the Coffee club directors as they did in their regular business affairs. It is said they divided the liability according to the principle of the whole lamb, and will dig up the coin in a few days. Mr. Eccleston stated last night that the money had not yet been paid, but he said it would be shortly. He further said that he did not feel as if he should make any criticism of anybody. Later, he thought, the directors would make a public statement to the subscribers. In addition to the dollar subscriptions, a number of the business men financially aided the club in its inception.

FESTIVE ARE STUNTS OF THE RETAIL CLERKS

Union Members Held Lively Initiation and Social at Meeting.

The union clerks turned out in full strength last night to attend the conferring of the Union degree upon candidates. This, it appears, is not as bad as it sounds, the degree being something of a post-qualification for supreme membership. It was the first of its kind to happen, so far. But there will be plenty more of it later on. An even dozen new candidates were received with open arms and were shown the way. After everything passed through the regular initiatory routine and certain business matters were transacted, the doors were thrown open and the bunch settled down to a social. The stay feature was some stunt let by the self-titled "Bughouse" minstrels. The name tells part of its own story, but the beetle part was fraught with interest and humor which kept all present busy during a most enjoyable session.

The girls—about 90 of them, will be formally entered in about two weeks. They will form part of the regular union, and not as an auxiliary as in the cases of other lodges and fraternities.

Cooks and Waiters. If the retail clerks had the tone of their lives last night, the union cooks and waiters have their turn coming. At the meeting last night they planned a big dance and social which will eclipse anything yet given by this branch. The event will come off in two weeks' time.

Two members were admitted. They were Simon Hilar and William Temple.

RUSSIAN OFFICIALS DYING OR FLEEING

Effects of Terrorist Agitation Are to Destroy the Nerves of the Functionaries.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A special despatch to the Times from Paris states that in a letter from St. Petersburg, Professor Alexandre Ulmar, who is regarded in Paris as the most important of Count Witte, says that many of the highest Russian functionaries are dying from fright or are on the point of leaving the country. In this case bombs and knife are no longer necessary.

Professor Ulmar says that General Skellom, governor general of Poland, with the drums of both his cars destroyed by the explosion of a bomb, is in a state of intellectual collapse and probably will be succeeded by General Romanoff.

Admiral Dubassoff, author of the horrors at Moscow, whose leg was blown off, has received a present of 1,000,000 roubles ($500,000) from the czar in compensation, but his representation is at an end and he has decided to spend the rest of his life in foreign watering places.

Ex-Minister of the Interior Durnovo took refuge in Paris, but was practically expelled by Minister Clemenceau for trying to organize a Russian police system here. His whereabouts is now absolutely unknown.

THESE CAME TO GRIEF BECAUSE THEY DRANK

A parched trio are ready to hear what is going to happen in court today. S. L. Tutman was jacked up by Officer Fair in the evening, and taken to the jail in an express wagon. J. Shaw is another thirsty, who got mean and noisy when arrested by Constable Palestine. L. Manson, an old man, was either crazy or drunk, or both. Officer Bradley got him on Mariposa street, where he was engaged in blocking the path of passers-by. His actions were strange, but he seemed to have been drinking.

FATHER HAD DEATH READY

Parent of Outraged Child Visits Jail to Get at Phelps.

Comes Prepared to Send Fiend to His End, and Is Disarmed By Jailer.

Outraged by even the fallen men sheltered beneath the same roof, Oscar N. Phelps, who two nights ago narrowly escaped summary death at the hands of infuriated citizens of Selma for a revolting crime upon a little child, sits in his cell, nervous and unstrung, and trembling in fear at the sound of an approaching step. The father of little outraged Della Crane would cheerfully put him to an end, and said so plainly enough when he visited the jail yesterday morning.

Yesterday, when B. F. Crane, the father of the child, called at the jail, he inquired calmly enough for the miscreant. Something in his eye made Deputy Sheriff Vogelsang suspect his purpose and, glancing at Crane's hip pocket, saw a bulge that indicated a revolver. He requested Mr. Crane to hand over his revolver as a preliminary, to seeing the prisoner. With a little demur, the father gave his revolver to Mr. Vogelsang. It was loaded and ready for a mission of revenge.

"I'm sorry that I did not have a chance to kill the brute," said Crane, "but I would have done it sure enough if my gun was loaded. Yes, and I would have killed him—beaten his head in with the useless gun if my hand was not hurt. I hurt it in some machinery." Mr. Crane then went on to tell how the affair happened up to the time of his discovery. As outlined in the first description of the deed, he then said: "I will tell you right here that I'm going to hire the best legal talent available to get that fellow the limit. I'm sorry to think that it is only a life sentence, but that's better than nothing. I wish the laws made such things a capital offense and give people a chance to rid the world of such dangerous degenerates."

The rig in which the outrage was perpetrated was stolen. Phelps' possession of it showed clearly that he had some evil design on foot. He rented the horse and vehicle in Selma shortly after noon, but because he had no money to pay for its use, and on account of his disreputable appearance, the owner told him to be off and let the rig alone. An hour later the horse and buggy were gone. Of course, it is possible that the fellow intended at first nothing worse than theft, and the net seemed in accordance with the general crookedness of the man. Some are inclined to think that he was about to make off with the outfit for some other town when on his way out he met the group of little girls and his debased mind suggested the blackest form of villainy as a crowning act before leaving town forever.

AUTOMOBILE PLAYS PRANKS IN GARAGE

Big Winton Touring Car Smashes Front of Building.

Twenty feet of glass doors smashed to pieces, a bicycle put out of use, and several minor damages to the building, such was the result of a curious automobile accident at the Raisin City garage on I street at 11:45 last night.

The Raisin City garage occupies a large floor space under the Einstein building on I street opposite the Hughes hotel. Shortly before midnight one of the mechanics was overhauling a large Winton touring car, which stood in the middle of the floor facing toward the street. While he was working over the sparkler, the car suddenly without warning shot backwards with such force that the whole front of the garage from top to bottom, composed of glass doors and windows, was entirely demolished; a bicycle standing nearby bent almost double, and several other small articles in the path of the big machine scattered in all directions.

As suddenly as the sidewalk in front of the garage had started in front of it, and strange to say, suffered little from its contact with the doors, only one rear mud guard being damaged.

The collision sounded like an explosion and could be heard for blocks. The guests at the Hughes jumped from their beds and heads dotted nearly every window. Few people were on the streets, but those that were jumped as if they were experiencing an earthquake. It all happened and was over so quickly that few knew what the trouble was.

IN THE LODGE ROOM.

Pittches tribe, Improved Order of Rodmen, was in a sociable mood last night and while that always indicates something particularly entertaining in the social line last night's affair offered even more than the usual social occasion. There was a fine program on with some of the best talent the city affords. The evening's entertainment was in charge of the following committee, who deserve credit for the really excellent entertainment they provided: T. E. Prior, George E. Merz, Albert Jannopoulos, Professor Meyers was at the piano which was of course a treat. Oswald Scholz contributed several fine violin numbers and Mr. Tilton was heard in cornet solos. There were speeches from J. M. Heron, besides two of the candidates, J. H. Bramblett and R. D. Chittenden. C. L. Ehrlich, who has become famous for his unique whistling solos, responded to the general demand for several solos, which were enthusiastically received. Another feature of the evening's program was the singing of the Las Palmas quartet, the newest musical organization to come before the public. The members, who include A. G. Wahlberg, Dr. C. C. Williams, H. W. Lawrence and S. A. Buchanan, have been singing together only a short time, but their musical knowledge and perfect harmony of voices make it apparent that Fresno's latest quartet is to be one of its best. There is no better music than that of a first-class male quartet and the initial appearance of the Las Palmas quartet foretells something particularly good for future occasions.

In the business session of the tribe preceding the social session in addition to the usual reports and other routine matters, it was decided to inaugurate a competition for capturing pupae. This contest will continue until the eleventh sleep of the hunting moon, when substantial prizes of emblems and other awards will be presented to the victors. A feast in the banquet room ended the festivities last night.

Woodmen. Manzanita Camp, W. O. W., at its regular weekly session last night received an encouraging communication from the head camp in regard to the general condition of the order and its finances. The goal aimed for last year was a hundred thousand membership and a reserve fund of a million dollars. Exceeding that mark the membership list numbers 100,127 members and a reserve fund of $1,245,000. This is the standing of the order September 1st and Manzanita camp feels much gratified that it had a part in promoting this condition. Several officers who have been absent for a number of the summer meetings were on hand last night and lodge affairs are once more beginning to assume the old air of "things doing." The drill team has been reorganized with H. E. West in temporary command during the absence of E. C. Nell. Plans are in progress for a social to be given the last Tuesday in October. The committee in charge is planning some surprises in the way of novelty of entertainment. This committee includes H. D. Carver, C. E. Turner, H. E. West, Ernest Dusenberry and W. J. Conn.

Artisans. After several months of quiet meetings the Artisans are beginning the fall term with energy and enthusiasm, as was demonstrated by the good attendance at last night's session. C. M. Shannon was installed as Master Artisan and Mrs. Leota Zapp as superintendent. A committee was appointed to take up the matter of a dance to be given as soon as arrangements can be made for it. The following were appointed to act on this committee: Mrs. Lottie Kohler, Mrs. Lizzie Boyd, Miss Mary Hansen, A. C. Bradley. Next week there will be a social session for the members including an entertainment and refreshments.

Workmen. The workmen assembled in their hall last night to enjoy an unusually lively session and a well attended one, which of course added to the enthusiasm. After the customary round of business matters there was an hour or more devoted to social enjoyment with a number of entertaining speeches and musical selections. Walter Jarvis contributed several songs. S. C. Longwell added a couple of lively banjo selections and there were entertaining speeches by C. N. Freeman and W. A. Estbrook. Next week the members are looking forward with pleasure to an entertainment and banquet for the lodge which promises to be an unusually enjoyable occasion.

JURORS DID NOT WANT FEE

Socialist Member Urges Others to Refuse Payment.

Claims that Service on Jury Deserves No Pay to True Citizens.

Socialism is known to have quite a good sized following of coteries in this city, but it remained for J. E. Brooks, a juror in Judge Briggs' court yesterday, to come out with anything tangible enough to show that the policy was proof against the magic finge of dollars and cents, or worthy of a sacrifice of personal interests. Brooks declined his fee as a member of a court jury. He did not even stop at that, for he urged the other members of the body to do likewise with such good effect that three of the number declined to take anything for their trouble while the others were depressed enough in their acceptance of the lure to indicate sympathetic accord with the doubtful Socialist's view.

Mr. Brooks' idea for this rests in his belief that all citizens should be at all times ready and willing to lend a helping hand to their country in the maintenance of law and order, or in any other way by which they can make themselves useful.

Besides Mr. Brooks, the jury was formed of Messrs. Maxwell, Hooper, Chapin, Neil, Hensley, Lowers, Jones, Goodman, Payne, Carpenter and Chittenden.

The case upon which they were engaged was a civil suit wherein Dr. C. P. Kjerbyne sued George Larson for $200 for professional services rendered to the latter's wife. Mrs. Larson succumbed to her ailment and when the fee was brought up it was alleged by the defendant that an operation performed by the physician was unnecessary inasmuch as it failed to prolong her life or effect a cure in her hopeless condition. The defense entered a counter claim of $200.00 for damages, the highest amount that can be brought in a justice court. Nearly all the doctors in town gave expert testimony, disagreeing on the expediency of the operation.

After a deliberation of one hour the jury came to an agreement, and Dr. Kjerbyne was awarded $1 damages. The case will be appealed.

Attorney Cory represented the defendant while Attorney Sutherland looked after the interests of the doctor.

FRESNO, Sept. 25.—Official readings at 5 p. m.:

Temperature, wet bulb 62

Wind (W.), miles per hr. 5
Maximum temperature 85

Fair, warmer Wednesday.

High barometric pressure covers the country from the Mississippi valley eastward, being central over New England, causing colder weather throughout the Eastern states and killing frost at Northfield, Vermont. The trough of low pressure noted yesterday over the Rocky mountains is moving slowly eastward and now covers almost the entire region between the Rocky mountains and the Mississippi valley, being widely extended southward between the coast of southern California and the Gulf of Mexico. The eastward movement of this low temperature has caused light rains over western Montana, the south Rocky mountain districts, Kansas, eastern Texas, the middle Mississippi valley. Light rains occurred yesterday over the coast of Oregon and Washington. High pressure prevails over the Plateau region and north Pacific slope, accompanied by fair cool weather. Fair, warmer weather will prevail in this vicinity Wednesday.

SHAW IS TO SUMMON JURY

Venire of Seventy-five Called for Friday Morning.

David Hill Cited for Attempting to Remove Child from County.

Substantial progress was made in the trial of Willie Hill yesterday by the agreement of the attorneys on both sides that Coroner Cowan should be considered disqualified to summon a special venire of jurors because of the fact that he is a witness in the case, and that Chief of Police Shaw should be appointed an ellisor to summon the venire of seventy-five desired for the continuance of the case. This venire has been made returnable at 10 o'clock next Friday morning.

At the opening of court, Sheriff Collins had his special venire of ten men on hand. Attorneys Everts & Ewing at once challenged the panel on the ground that Sheriff Collins had admitted in open court that he believed the named man guilty. District Attorney Jones acknowledged the challenge, whereupon the question arose as to who should summon the venire.

It was agreed that Coroner Cowan was disqualified to act, the district attorney being prepared with an affidavit to that effect from the coroner. Mr. Jones suggested the name of Shaw, and the defense made no objection. Judge Church said that he wanted to have Shaw in court before the appointment was made, and the police chief was summoned and questioned, after some controversy as to whether this should be done under oath or not. Shaw answered all the questions regarding bias satisfactorily, and was then sworn in.

The ten men that Sheriff Collins had examined were H. E. Eymore, C. M. Hodges, C. H. Hotaling, Eric Johnson, Odie Johnson, D. L. Smith, Adolph Noren, H. E. Eymore, B. F. Parks, and John Whistler.

Feared Loss of Child.
Fear that her 9-year-old son is to be removed from the county and beyond her maternal watchfulness, Mrs. Iva Hill yesterday went into the Superior court to have her husband, David Hill, cited to appear and be instructed to remain within the jurisdiction of the court. The citation was issued by Judge Church for October 1st.

The Hills were separated in 1904, at which time the court directed that the father should have the custody of the elder boy, Jesse, and the mother that of the younger. It was provided that each parent should have a chance to visit the other child, and that the children should be together at least one week in the month.

In her petition, Mrs. Hill states that this agreement has been faithfully kept, but that she has reason to believe that her husband is about to remove the boy from the county so as to prevent her seeing him. The elder boy is 9 years old and the younger 8.

A copy of the articles of incorporation of the Borland Land company was filed with the county clerk yesterday. This is a San Francisco corporation, the directors of which are Archibald Borland, Mary Von Adelung and Agnes Hart, all of Oakland, and Henry Nathan and Philip Stern, both of San Francisco. The capital stock is $50,000 in $100 shares, of which the directors have each taken one share.

The proceedings in the case of the Seropian Brothers, corporation, against H. M. and G. M. Seropian and others, having come to a temporary standstill, the case was yesterday continued indefinitely to be taken up on motion of either side.

District Attorney Jones filed an information against Albert T. Cowings, the colored attorney of Fowler, who was accused of attempt at manufacturing testimony in the Green Walker murder case. The complaint against Cowings was signed on August 9th by S. P. Phillips, a brother of the man that Walker killed.

Frank J. Bruchi, who is administrator of the Rosa Bruchi estate, has begun suit against W. K. Sabor and certain unknown claimants to quiet title to lots 1 to 4 in block 7 of Altamont addition in this city. The action was begun by John A. Wall, an attorney of Mariposa.

Prohibition Nominations.
The prohibitionists yesterday filed their certificate of nominations of candidates for county officers. The document was signed by J. F. Butler, chairman, and C. B. Springer, secretary of the county central committee. This is the first certificate that has been filed.

AN EXCURSION TO HEAR BELL

Visalia Democrats Will Go to Hanford.

Town Suffering from an Epidemic of Drunkenness—Registration.

VISALIA, Sept. 25.—An excursion will be run from this city to Hanford Thursday night to attend the Democratic rally at that place when Theodore Bell, candidate for governor, will be the principal speaker. The Visalia band has been secured and the trip will be made on the Southern Pacific, the special train leaving about 6 o'clock and returning after speaking. It is expected that between 100 and 200 will make the trip.

Fifteen persons, mostly Indians, were locked up last night for being drunk and disturbing the peace. This brings the total number of drunks so far this month up to eighty-eight, the largest in a corresponding length of time in the memory of local officers. Eighteen of the number were jailed on Sunday night. Eight looked up for other offenses brings the total for twenty-four days up to ninety-six, an average of four a day. This breaks the record for many years.

A marriage license was issued today to Henry John Glaner, aged 30 years, and Constance Emily Potter, 21. Both are natives of England and residents of Lemon Grove.

P. W. Davis, administrator of the estate of Richard Watten, deceased, today filed his bond in the sum of $22,000. His sureties are S. Mitchell, W. H. Hammond, W. R. Spalding and Ben M. Maddox.

An action was brought today by Mrs. Mary McSwan against Elias Persian and Mrs. J. Persian to collect a promissory note in the sum of $400, and interest since July 31 of this city. Also for $75 attorneys' fees and costs of suit. Hannah & Miller are attorneys for plaintiff. The note is secured by a mortgage on 400 acres of land.

Mrs. Anna May Bell, who has been a teacher in the Visalia high school for several years, left last night for Los Angeles, having been appointed English teacher in the Polytechnic high school in that city. Miss Bell is a graduate of the Visalia high school and of Stanford university.

Mrs. R. Watten returned this morning from Santa Monica and other southern cities, where she had been spending several weeks. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Mrs. Fred Jones and children, who will visit here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Owen left this morning for Seattle, Washington, where they expect to make their home.

Samuel Fowler left this morning for Santa Cruz, where he purchased property last summer and where he expects to reside.

PRICES CURRENT

CHICAGO: Weather in the spring wheat country continues favorable to the movement of the new crop and arrivals today at the Northwestern markets showed a substantial increase, although they were still less than for the corresponding day a year ago. This increase in receipts furnished the main incentive to moderate profit taking by local buyers which was in evidence the greater part of the day. Lower prices for cash wheat at Kansas City and St. Louis were additional reasons for the moderate decline in the local market.

December wheat opened unchanged to 1/8 lower at 75 3/4 and 3/8, sold up to 75 3/8 and 3/4, declined to 74 7/8 and closed 1/8 and 3/4 lower at 75 1/8 and 1/4.

Selling by elevator interests and cash houses caused moderate weakness in the corn market early in the day. December closed a shade higher, however, at 44.

Oats were decidedly strong. December closed 5/8 and 3/4 higher at 34 1/2. The greater part of the business transacted in provisions consisted of the changing of holdings in the nearby deliveries to the January option. At the close January pork was a shade lower. Lard was off a shade and ribs were up a shade.

SAN FRANCISCO: Wheat quiet; December $1.25; cash $1.30. Harley quiet; December $1.04; cash $1.06 1/4. Corn quiet; large yellow $1.40 and $1.42 1/4.

NEW YORK: The market for evaporated apples is easy; new crop supplies of state apples 3-4 at 7; Southwestern prime, 5-6.

Pineapples are in light supply on spot and prices show somewhat upward tendency, with quotations ranging from 1-2 to 1-4 according to grade.

Apples are unchanged, with choice quoted at 16c; extra choice fancy, 18 at 20c.

Peaches are firm; choice, 10 3/4 at 11; extra choice, 11 at 11 1/2; fancy, 11 at 12; extra fancy, 12 at 12 1/2.

Raisins are in ready demand with loose muscatels quoted at 6 7/8 at 7; seeded raisins, 6 at 8; London layers, nominal.

Dynamite Outrage in Finland.
HELSINKI, Finland, Sept. 25.—An unsuccessful attempt was made at 1 o'clock this morning to blow up the police reserve barracks here. One reserve was slightly injured and windows of barracks and of the adjacent guard barracks and other buildings were shattered. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the outrage.

DEATH BETTER THAN PRISON

Indian in Confinement Cured His Throat.

Prompt Services of County Physician Saved His Life—General News.

HANFORD, Sept. 25.—John Brown, an Indian who got into a cutting fray on the Lemoore reservation a few weeks ago and is now confined in the county jail charged with assault with a deadly weapon, attempted suicide last night by cutting his throat with a piece of glass. The wound bled freely, but the prompt action of County Physician W. B. Charles, who was summoned as soon as the man's rash act was discovered, saved the fellow's life.

Coroner W. M. Thomas went to Lemoore yesterday afternoon and held an inquest into the death of John L. Sanborn, who was found dead in his door yard in that town. The principal witness was Oscar Wilson, who discovered the body.

After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict of death from heart failure due to old age and natural causes. The funeral services will be held in the Lemoore Baptist church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Rev. Eedle will officiate.

RESULTS ON THE DIAMOND

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—The local celebration of the return to the home front today, after a six weeks' absence in the north, by defeating Oakland 5 to 1, in a game well played throughout. Opportunity work by the Angels earned them the game.

Kitty Brasher, who played shortstop and second base with Los Angeles the early part of the season and drew out to join Altoona, Pa., in the outland league, when Morley threw up his hand, returned to Manager Berry's standard today and was warmly welcomed by the fans. He was assigned to third base and did good work there and at the bat. Buckley, formerly of San Francisco, wore the mask for the locals and caught acceptably, and Carlie, the ex-New York fielder, covered left field for Dillon. Score:

ADOLPH WEBER MAY HANG TOMORROW

There Is Little Likelihood That Governor Pardee Will Intervene With Execution.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.—Unless Governor Pardee intervenes, Adolph Weber will be hanged at Folsom prison on Thursday for the murder of his mother. With charges that the murder of his father, mother, brother and sister, he was tried on only one charge. Governor Pardee was asked today whether he would indicate what action he will take on the petition for a commutation of sentence and he replied that he would not discuss the case. It is not believed the governor will take any action whatever, thus permitting the law to take its course.

Late this afternoon F. P. Tuttle, counsel for Weber, appeared at the governor's office. He stated he would petition for another reprieve of fifteen days for Weber to permit of the introduction of further evidence in the condemned man's behalf.

Tuttle also filed affidavits by Policemen D. R. Campbell and J. McCann, stating Carr had told them he had been asked to identify the pistol with which Weber killed his family, but he could not do it.

SAILORS' UNION IS BROUGHT INTO COURT

Shipowners Allege That Secretary Furuseth Is a Virtual Dictator to the Members.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Andrew Furuseth, secretary of the sailors' union, was placed on the stand today and called upon to identify the constitution and by-laws of his union in the suit for permanent injunction against the body brought by the California & Oregon Steamship company and pending before Judge Seawell.

Henry Ach, representing the owners, hopes to prove by the constitution that Secretary Furuseth has the power to dispose of the members of the union as he wishes during a strike. This would prove, he contended, that the union was directly responsible for non-union men being intimidated into leaving the company boats. Attorney Hutton claimed that the fact that Furuseth is a witness at this time regarding the shooting of Andrew Kellner, a union picket, by non-union guards and seamen, now on trial for murder, should make him ineligible as a witness. The judge thought otherwise.

The California & Oregon company owns a number of lumber schooners and upon its complaint the union men were temporarily restrained from interfering with these ships and the employees on board.

CAPTAINS OF WHALERS ARE ORDERED ARRESTED

Masters of Imprisoned Vessels Will Be Charged With Not Providing Medicines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Secretary Metcalf of the department of commerce and labor has ordered the masters of whaling vessels to arrest upon their arrival the masters of the whaling vessels Bowland, Karluk, Narwhal, Thrasher, Alexander and Bonanza, vessels which were bound all winter at Point Barrow. The masters will be charged with having neglected to provide their crews with lime juice and other anti-scurbutics and medicines prescribed by law for the health of their crews.

Forty-four members of the crews of these vessels will be sent to this city as witnesses against the captains. Two of the vessels, the Bonanza and Alexander, have been wrecked.

AMERICAN LEGATION AT STOCKHOLM HAD A NARROW ESCAPE

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 25.—The American legation, although not the direct object of the planned outrage, had a narrow escape from being blown up by the Finnish refugee revolutionists who were arrested here Sept. 22nd, and was only saved by the timely arrest of the conspirators. It appears that the latter intended to rob the state bank, occupying part of the same premises as the legation. The Finns had planned first to empty the vaults of the bank, then raise the building with dynamite, fifty pounds of which was found in their possession. The men arrested declare that the attempt will be repeated by others.

RIDDLED HIS HOUSE WITH BULLETS IN A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—After he had riddled the interior of his residence at 1373 Fulton street with bullets, William H. Hildebrandt was arrested today by a squad from the Park police station, who had been called out on a riot call. The police were compelled to batter down the door of Hildebrandt's residence before they could capture him. He was found to be armed with a rifle and the members of his family had taken refuge in various portions of the house. Hildebrandt told the police he had fired the shots in celebration of his nephew's birthday.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Col. Isaac R. Hill, better known as Col. "Ike" Hill, of Ohio, and for thirty-five years an employee almost continuously of the House of Representatives, died today at his apartment in this city from a complication of diseases.

San Jose Normal Opened.

SAN JOSE, Sept. 25.—The state normal school re-opened today, and up to noon registrations numbered 200 old students and 200 new, being the heaviest registration the first half day ever known at the school. All but three are girls. The training department is already so crowded with applicants that many have been turned away.

FAIRBANKS IN COLORADO

Pioneer Day Celebrated in Pike Centennial.

Vice Presiden Spoke of Past Achievement and Future Greatness of West.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 25.—Pioneer day, the second in the Pike centennial week, opened auspiciously, as did the week itself. With early dawn the streets took on a most animated appearance, the trains of last night and the early morning adding materially to the vast throng of outsiders who have come to participate in the celebration.

The day had been set aside by the committee on arrangements for the glorification of the efforts and achievements of the early pioneers, the men who blazed the trails and belonged to the vanguard of civilization that has made the great American desert the land of milk and honey, whose dawn today is witnessing. The influx of pioneers from Colorado and neighboring states made a gathering of those interested persons that never before has been equaled in this section of the country.

The formal exercises were conducted in the open air, meeting being held at Stratton park, at the entrance to the famous Cheyenne canyon, this morning. The speakers at this meeting were General Frank Hall, one-time secretary of Jefferson territory, and Judge William F. Stone of Denver.

Owing to the fact that it was seen early that the Grand opera house would accommodate only a small part of the crowd that desired to hear the address of Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks, the meeting was made an open air one instead. The vice-president spoke from the land stand in Aspen park and his address was listened to attentively by fully 10,000 persons. He was introduced by Congressman Frank E. Brooks.

Vice-President Fairbanks said in part:

"We celebrate not only an interesting incident, but we pay tribute also to the American pioneer, who has wrought wondrously, not only upon the field, but in pushing forward the frontier of our national development. He has always been and is eager to respond wherever duty calls, whether it be in the theater of war, or blazing a pathway into new and unknown territory. We recall with pleasure and gratitude the names of Pike, Lewis and Clark, Fremont and other soldiers who are forever associated with expeditions organized for the opening up of territory in the United States. We recognize them as pathfinders in the truest and best sense.

"We fully appreciate the tremendous consequences flowing from Pike's expedition. He blazed the pathway hither and thousands in due time followed where he led. Those who thus came here to set up dominion were well fitted to found a state. They brought with them into the new field of their endeavor the self-governing instinct of the Anglo-Saxon race, an indelible purpose which subdued obstacles and converted to the use of man the natural elements which providence scattered among these mountains. They made laws which had no higher sanction than their own consent—laws which concerned both life and property—and they were executed with all the solemnity of measures passed under adequate constitutional warrant. The principles of many of them so founded upon the assent of the pioneers have been incorporated either in terms or substance, into the statutes of the country, and have survived to the present day.

"Here we are in the midst of the Great West. The West has long been an invitation to the progressive blood of America; yes, and to thousands born beneath alien skies whose souls yearned for a larger field and ample opportunities. The West has long been a familiar name on our geography, with a changing base, if I may so speak. It has moved from the Atlantic seaboard across the Alleghenies, beyond the Mississippi valley to the broad plains, to the Rocky mountains, and to the Pacific coast. The name is full of significance. It suggests not only tremendous areas, containing unmeasured natural resources and congenial climate, but it suggests a people of virility, with energy and pluck unsurpassed anywhere.

"The century which has elapsed since the expedition which we celebrate has given a tremendous impulse to the cause of Republican government, and our institutions, which were feeble and viewed with much distrust a century ago, have grown wonderfully in strength and in the confidence of the world. They have successfully withstood assaults, made upon them and have increased in strength with each attempt to overthrow them. The perils

TO BROADEN CHURCH CREED

Science and Modern Thought Require Change.

Methodist Episcopal Church South Undertakes a Great Religious Work.

Rev. J. J. N. Kenny's sermon on the "Restatement of Methodism" preached last Sunday at the Methodist Episcopal church (South) has caused great interest in religious circles.

To further enlarge upon what he said in his sermon, in an interview last evening with a Republican reporter, Mr. Kenny said: "Regarding the present demand for a restatement of the Methodist faith, we found at the general conference, held last May in Birmingham, Alabama, that this demand for a restatement came from all parts of the territory covered by our church. After a thorough discussion of the matter a vote was taken and a large majority of both preachers and laymen voted for the appointment of a commission that should be empowered to make a restatement. The same resolution included a request to all other Methodist bodies to unite with us in this restatement."

"The articles of faith will probably be left as they are, more for historic accuracy than as a matter of faith. The object of the conference in the appointment of this commission was to secure in a short, comprehensive form a statement of Christian faith that should be in accord with the latest discoveries of science and the best results of modern thought. This statement is intended to emit the dogmatic statements concerning original sin and total depravity, and also to cause laying down as a condition of church membership belief in doctrinal formulas."

"The purpose is to put the church on the broad plane of brotherly kindness so strikingly manifest in the example of Christ, hence making a condition of membership not a belief in dogmatic statements, but a desire to live a useful life."

"The church has tried long enough to meet the growing demands of this age with the old theories. We need a basis broad enough to admit into the church everyone that desires to live a useful life. Such a basis of union would unite in the church of Christ all those who are honestly trying to live such a life and thus the real kingdom of Christ would be greatly strengthened in society."

"The desire of our church is to set forth such a statement as will break down the barrier that has existed between the religious and secular life; to leave out the dogmatic statements about the next world and put the emphasis upon right living in the present world, and to bring out the spirit of brotherhood and make the church a real factor in the every day life of men. We would make the life of the church an example, seeking ourselves to be like Him in spirit and in work, and helping others to the same life."

"This commission, we have appointed, is to make known to all other Methodist bodies our desire, and to secure, if possible, their co-operation. When these bodies are heard from, this commission will report back to the conference that appointed them, and, in the event of the co-operation of these bodies, a commission consisting of representatives from all of them will be given charge of the matter. In the event of the other Methodist bodies desiring to co-operate, our next general conference, to be held four years from last May, will most likely appoint a commission to make the restatement with the Methodist Episcopal church (South) alone."

"As this matter will have to be brought up in the separate conferences, it will be two years before we can hear from all the other Methodist bodies."

HUNGARY TO FOLLOW FRESNO

European Powers Investigating Irrigation Here.

Prof. de Sigmond Says—Fresno Has Greatest System in World.

That irrigation and drainage have reached their highest perfection in California and particularly in Fresno county is the statement of Alexis de Sigmond, Ph. D., professor of agricultural chemistry and technology in the Imperial University of Budapest, who arrived here yesterday to spend considerable time in observation of the irrigation and drainage system in this county.

Professor de Sigmond is enthusiastic about California methods of irrigation and says that his country will emulate the work done here in the reclamation of alkali lands. "The problem of drainage here is similar to the problem presented in our country," said Professor Alexis last night, "and I shall make extensive notes on your methods to apply to my country when I return home. We cannot irrigate as you do here by letting the water run through the soil, but we have to run the water over the soil. This is on the clay land and we have been working for some years to develop a system of irrigating our clay lands."

"But this year we have taken up the problem of the reclamation of our alkali lands. The problem was not forced to our attention so forcibly as it was in this country as we have not the large tract of alkali lands to reclaim that you have in the United States. In our country we have some such land as you have here in Fresno county and I am looking closely into your way of dealing with the problem as I expect to make recommendations to the government when I get home."

"I find that irrigation has reached its highest perfection right here in Fresno county and shall spend some time in looking into your methods."

Professor de Sigmond has been in the state since the first of the month and expects to leave about the last of next month for a tour through the arid portions of Nevada, Utah and Colorado, going from there to Canada on his way home.

The Hungarian agriculturist is enthusiastic about the reception that he has received in this country and particularly in the West. "The further West that I came the more hospitably I found the people," he said. "California is certainly the greatest country in the world in a great many respects. It has a world wide reputation for its agricultural pursuits. Agriculture is studied more systematically and more scientifically here than in any other country in the world."

Professor de Sigmond is on a two year tour of the world to look into agricultural work. Yesterday he visited the reclamation work being carried on under the direction of W. W. Munkie here. He will go to Egypt and Europe after he completes his visit to this continent and will return home to his university for work in the fall of 1906.

Today Professor de Sigmond expects to visit the various wineries and packing houses of the county to get an idea of how the products of California agriculture are handled.

Professor Samuel Fortier, in charge of the irrigation and drainage investigations of the United States Department of Agriculture in this state, arrived here last night from Berkeley and the two men compared notes last night. Professor Fortier is here to institute some new work along the lines of drainage and the Hungarian professor will accompany him on his tour for the next few days.

PLANS FOR CONVENTION

How to Entertain Teachers of State.

Meeting of Citizens Last Evening at Which Arrangements Were Discussed.

A number of prominent citizens met informally at the Chamber of Commerce building last night to consider ways and means of providing entertainment for the State Teachers' Association, which will meet in Fresno, the week between Christmas and New Year's. Among those present were F. H. Short, A. L. Redick, W. Parker, Lyon, Louis Gundelinger, C. H. Rowell, Chas. Puckhaber, C. Pearson, H. Graff, H. Pratt, J. Porteous, Louis Einstein, Fred David, John A. Neu, Leopold Gundelinger and Tom Robertson. A. L. Redick called the meeting to order, and suggested that Frank Short preside. Mr. Short made a brief statement of the importance of the convention to be held, emphasizing particularly the point that this will be an opening wedge in the effort to make Fresno a convention city. There will be two or three thousand teachers in Fresno for the week, besides delegates to the State Library Association, the Farmers Institute and other meetings. Fresno has the best location in the state for a convention city, and has now abundant hotel accommodations. Nothing is lacking but a pavilion, and that will doubtless be provided before very long. To the meantime, here is a convention which requires besides the opera house, only a number of small halls. Fresno can accommodate it, and if this is done well, the reputation so earned will help in future conventions. Mr. Short suggests as important, besides raising the necessary funds, which should not be less than $2500 or $3000, interesting the leading people of the city to take personal part in the entertainment of the visitors, and appropriately decorating the stores and streets.

A. L. Redick spoke of the importance of decorations, and urged the merchants and others in providing the necessary funds. C. H. Rowell was called on also for an account of last year's meeting at Berkeley. Louis Gundelinger inquired what the regular committee had already done, and suggested that an appeal from that committee through the press, followed by visits from a canvassing committee, would meet with a liberal response. Mayor Lyon, who is chairman of the finance committee, reported that about $1200 would be needed for the absolutely necessary expenses of the convention—hall, printing, postage and the like. Anything for entertainment would have to be additional to this sum. It was explained that a number of banquets will be given, by the Berkeley, Stanford and San Jose alumni, the college fraternities, the school-masters club, and the like, but the teachers themselves will pay for these. For general entertainment, at least $1200 additional must be raised, and more would be desirable.

The meeting agreed to the policy of raising at least $2500, and left the details to the finance committee.

.. SOCIETY ..

There was a pleasant little dinner given last night by Mrs. Harry Glasgow in honor of a quartet of young people whom she has chaperoned on several occasions this summer. It was a delightful reunion after vacation time, covers at the table being laid for Miss Gertrude Leonard, Miss Zoe Glasgow, Willard Bates, Mr. Allard, Dr. and Mrs. Glasgow. After dinner music added to the pleasure of the evening.

It seems that athletics are to be "the thing" this winter. At least one might judge so according to the number of prominent women who are taking up gymnasium work under Miss Agnes Hersey, the new physical director of the Young Women's Christian Association. The class will not begin serious work until October, but many of the ladies have expressed their interest and approval of such work, and not a few have promised to join a class which will meet on Tuesday mornings at the association rooms on I street. Among those whose names are already with Miss Hersey are Mrs. Frank Gray, Mrs. Emory Donahoe, Mrs. John D. Gray, Mrs. W. A. Sutherland, Mrs. Truman Hart, Mrs. W. D. Coates, Mrs. T. W. Patterson, Mrs. A. E. Snow, Mrs. O. L. Everts, Mrs. A. O. Warner, Miss Mary Lyman, Miss Julia Sayre, Mrs. M. L. Woy, Mrs. O. J. Waggoner, Mrs. E. B. Waggoner, Mrs. E. B. Waterman, Mrs. A. G. Wahlberg, Mrs. M. K. Harris and Mrs. A. E. Wagstaff.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Doyle have arrived from Sacramento to be present at the marriage next Saturday evening of Mrs. Doyle's sister, Miss Margaret Herrell, and Dr. Daniel Farnham of San Francisco.

The ladies of the aid-society of the First Presbyterian church are busily engaged in preparations for a dinner at the church on Thursday evening for the Men's league of the church. Covers will be laid for a hundred, and an invitation has gone out to all the men of the church and congregation to attend. This is an annual event in the church and is always a most delightful occasion. There will be speeches and toasts, to say nothing of a fine spread which the ladies are preparing with their own hands.

Miss Ruth Nill and Miss Redfield are visiting in Se. Jose as guests of the Y. W. C. A. here.

Junior Coates is down from San Francisco on a visit of a week or two with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Coates.

The "Just for Fun" club, an organization of young people, who have enjoyed some pleasant evenings together earned will help in future conventions. Mr. Short suggests as important, besides raising the necessary funds, which should not be less than $2500 or $3000, interesting the leading people of the city to take personal part in the entertainment of the visitors, and appropriately decorating the stores and streets.

SUPREME COURT AND "HOLY ROLLER" WOMEN

Superior Court Judge Cited to Show Cause Why Confessed Murderers Should Escape.

SEATTLE, Sept. 24.—The Supreme court this morning signed an order restraining Judge Frater of the Superior court of King county from signing an order directing the sheriff to deport Mrs. Maud Creffield and Esther Aitchell to Oregon in accordance with the finding of the insanity commission appointed by him. The court directed that Judge Frater appear on October 26th and show cause why he should not be permanently enjoined from taking action and why he should not be compelled to return the murder cases to the trial docket and try them.

The restraining order was secured by Prosecuting Attorney Mackintosh, who is determined to bring the women to trial. The petition for the order set up that the insanity commission had been illegally appointed and in the conduct of their examination it had disregarded the statutes.

CIVIL CASES TO BE RESET

Helm Trial Will Last Two Weeks Longer.

Litigation that Must Go Over In Judge Church's Department.

The protraction of the Willie Helm trial is causing a flurry among a number of lawyers who have cases set in Judge Church's department during the next two or three weeks. It is estimated that this case will consume about fifteen more court days under the most favorable circumstances, and accordingly, all cases set for trial during that time must be reset. These are all civil proceedings, as the next criminal calendar opens in Judge Austin's department on Oct. 31st with the trial of Ah Wing for murder. Wing is one of the men caught in the shooting affray that occurred upon the opening of Tong Duck's saloon house.

The first case to come in Judge Church's department is that of the town of Selma against T. R. Brewer, one of the many whisky cases that that enterprising druggist has had to defend. This is on the 28th of this month. On the 29th will be called up the case of Selma against K. Tagami, who was detected in selling beer in his Japanese looking house in Selma. Graham and Wallace are for the municipality, and Exerts & Ewing for the defendant in both of these cases.

On Oct. 1st will come up the suit of Charles W. Hudson against Orin W. Ross, an action for the collection of charges for the maintenance of Ross' child while in the possession of Hudson. A struggle over the custody of the child was settled some time ago by the victory of the father, J. O. Traher and W. D. Orin, who are the attorneys for the respective parties.

One of the antiquities of the Fresno courts is set for Oct. 2nd, the suit of Jacob Hockenberry against W. O. Wolf and Stanton L. Carter. This was a complicated action that began some ten years ago, when one Jardine assigned a claim he had to Wolf, who brought suit on it through Carter. Wolf won and then kept the money. Jardine alleged that the assignment had been made only for purposes of collection, and brought suit for the money through Hockenberry. M. H. Harris is attorney for the plaintiff and S. L. Carter is defending.

On Oct. 3rd an interesting suit will be called up, that of M. M. Records against the Bank of Central California. The plaintiff is the assignee of the claim of a labor union, whose secretary drew out the union's money deposited in the bank and then left town. The union claimed that the bank was responsible for the loss of the money, and brought suit through Attorney Hibbs. M. K. Harris is defending.

An appeal case is set for Oct. 4th, that of Joe Dugan against Court Fresno City of the Ancient Order of Foresters. This action is for benefits claimed but refused by the lodge, and was lost in the lower court by the plaintiff, but appealed. The late W. D. Tupper acted for Imperatrice and Thompson & Prince for the lodge. Hearing on two claims against the John S. Reid estate has been set for Oct. 6th. Celia Arenas is suing the estate for $3097.20, alleged to be due her for services as housekeeper and for money advanced for funeral and other expenses, while W. O. Temple asks $380.70 for services and money advanced. George W. Cartwright is attorney for the plaintiff, M. F. McCormack for the public administrator and J. P. Bernhardt for the heirs, who live in Washington.

TO EXERCISE SATAN IN A BIG CAMPAIGN

Salvation Army, Aided By Disturbed Guests, Will Hold Brisk Meetings.

This is to be an exceptionally strenuous week for the local corps of the Salvation Army, and the members will have big things to offer any visitor who happens along within the next few days.

A distinguished official of the army passed through here yesterday en route to Bakersfield and will be here today. His name is Brigadier Robert Dubbin and he is one of the leading executives in this district. Another guest will arrive from Hanford tonight in the person of Captain Alger, who is to stop over. Added to these two will be Envoy Baird, who will join the others here and help out in some rousing meetings sufficient to exercise Satan out of Fresno for many days to come. Brigadier Dubbin with Captain Alger are coming on a tour of inspection to take a look at the spiritual, financial and other conditions of the branch, and incidentally stir things up in enthusiasm by helping out in some brisk campaigning. Envoy Baird holds a sort of super-numerary rank, although he hates to be considered a non-combatant officer. He is a traveling man, but puts in every spare hour and dollar in the work of the army. He is a familiar figure in this city and makes frequent trips down here. The envoy is an expert oboe performer and delights in playing selections at the meetings.

With this array of visiting Salvationists, Captain and Mrs. Hunt with their supporters here are trying to gather together the biggest kind of a congregation in their little hall tonight, and when the visitors see for themselves how much a larger hall is needed, it may help out things in that direction a bit.

FOUR GREEKS FREED FROM ROBBERY CHARGE

Story of Complaining Witness Was Insufficient to Hold.

The case against four Greeks, charged at Cloria with highway robbery, was examined yesterday before Justice Beall and after a hearing at length dismissed. While the complaining witness had been held up by the four men, there was nothing to show that there had been any robbery or intent to commit robbery.

Peter Haggis, the complaining witness, and the four accused men, George Roosa, Peter Brosis, John Kallipalis and G. W. Panagiotaras, were returning from their work at the mill, when the four took a pistol away from Haggis. The latter says that they also took a bankbook in which he had $20 pieces tied up. They deny this, saying that they took his pistol because he had threatened them with it. The pistol they turned over to the bookkeeper at the mill. The story about the money was supported by a friend of Haggis, whose name was Kukuras, but he could not tell a straight story. Deputy District Attorney Harbour conducted the prosecution.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES DENIES ANY INTENTION TO RE-ENTER THE RING.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—Jim Jeffries said to the Associated Press today that he had no intention of re-entering the prize ring and fighting for the heavyweight championship, the stories sent out from San Francisco, notwithstanding. "I am out of the fighting business," said Jeffries. "I passed through San Francisco yesterday on my way back from a hunting trip to Oregon and the newspaper boys have either misunderstood or misquoted me. Nothing has happened to induce me to alter my determination expressed two years ago that I would not enter the ring again."

MAGDON LEFT PANAMA AMID EXPRESSED REGRET OF PUBLIC AND PRESS

PANAMA, Sept. 25.—Charles E. Magdon, the retiring American minister to Panama, left today for Washington. The press, expressing public sentiment, deplores the departure of Minister Magdon, and says he leaves behind him only friends. Joseph W. Lee, the American minister, and Thomas W. Cooke also left here today.

CALISTHENICS FOR SCHOOLS

Directors Consider New Department Favorably.

Moral Effect of Existence of Parental School is Commented On.

The City Board of Education has practically agreed upon installing, as a part of the city school system, a department of physical culture. The matter was discussed at the regular meeting last night, but on account of the absence of Directors Clark and Smith action was postponed until later in the week, when a special meeting is to be called, so as to be ready to begin courses in physical culture on the first of the month.

Miss Hersey, who had made application to the board for the position of supervisor of physical culture, was before the board last evening to talk over the arrangements for the work. It was arranged that in the case of her employment, she should give half of her time to city school system, mornings or afternoons, or part one or the other according as should be arranged by the city superintendent. The most of the time will be given to direct instruction of pupils in the high school, the work to be played especially for the girls, as the boys have their athletic sports. Part of the teacher's time is to be given to conferences with the teachers in the Grammar and Primary buildings, and to inspections of the physical drills as carried out there.

Miss Hersey is a recent arrival from New York state, where she was an instructor in the public schools, and is now engaged in vocal and physical culture work in the Young Women's Christian association. Yesterday afternoon at a teachers' meeting she conducted a class in physical culture for the benefit of those present, having a class of sixth grade pupils for the purpose.

The members of the board present last evening were very much in favor of going ahead with the matter, but considered that this is the installation of a new school department and should only be acted upon by the whole board.

The board discussed the affairs of the parental school at great length. The new building has as yet no pupils, but this is not strange as during the first month of school there are rarely any boys that need attention from the truant officer. Director Holland remarked that there was probably not a boy in the city that did not know of the existence of the building, and that it was having a very salutary effect as a means of discipline. During the time since the opening of school Principal Sessions has been busy looking after the enforcement of the attendance law, violations of which are very frequent in the fruit season.

The board authorized the necessary work of fencing and otherwise laying out the grounds of the parental school, and made a request for aid from the city's landscape gardener in drawing up a permanent plan of improvement. In connection with the new report that came recently from Los Angeles, which stated that that city was about to install the first parental school in the state, Superintendent McLane reported that he had had a letter from Principal Moore of the Los Angeles schools asking for a copy of the plans adopted in Fresno, and had similar requests from other parts of the state. Mr. Buchanan, the drawing teacher, and some of his pupils are making a small set of plans to be sent out in answer to these requests.

The board had fixed last night as the oil burning system for the High school building. Only one bid was in that of A. W. Gearhart. This was referred to a committee for investigation.

Superintendent McLane reported that a number of ladies elected last summer to the substitute teachers' list had been on account of the resignation of regular teachers, filling regular positions since the opening of school. Those were accordingly elected regular teachers, as follows: Misses Helen Boyd, Jessie Grenfell, Rachel Bynon, Inez Jewett, May Fitzgerald and Franklin Zimmerman. Directors Thompson, Desmukes and Holland were present.

BOLD ATTEMPT MADE TO WRECK TRAIN

Ties Piled on Track of Sanger Branch Near Minnewawa. Discovered By Engineer Elwood in Nick of Time—Railroad Offers Reward of $50—Deputy Sheriff McSwain Makes Investigation.

A daring attempt to wreck the south-bound train of the Southern Pacific railroad between Estrella and Minnewawa was providently discovered in time to avert a shocking accident yesterday morning. The dastardly effort was evidently made shortly before dusk in an apparent attempt to demolish the first passenger train coming along, but failed owing to a change in the schedule of which the miscreant was not aware.

The engineer, whose sharp eye averted a serious wreck and probably saved the life of himself and his fireman, is John Elwood, the conductor on the train was W. C. Smith.

The matter was reported to the superintendent shortly after the timely discovery, and he immediately wired offer of a reward of $50 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the miscreant.

The wreckage was attempted by blocking the track with large ties placed diagonally across the track along a distance of several rail lengths. When the freight came stumbling along the spot the engineer, who looked out at the approach of a curve, detected in the distance some object projecting from the rails near one of the frogs.

The rails were sufficient to completely wreck a train going at full speed, and at the point of the line where the attempt was made, most trains travel while certain trails in the earth along about the bank showed that the ties had evidently been dragged with difficulty. No effort was in sight near the spot, but position is divided between motives of several suspicious looking characters revenge or robbery.

The authorities at the depot know nothing of the matter beyond the knowledge that the attempt had been made to wreck a train. A close investigation will be made, with a close look-out for suspicious characters, and the hobo element will come in for considerable attention. The trainmen station the rails was sufficient to completely wreck a train going at full speed, and at the point of the line where the attempt was made, most trains travel while certain trails in the earth along about the bank showed that the ties had evidently been dragged with difficulty. No effort was in sight near the spot, but position is divided between motives of several suspicious looking characters revenge or robbery.
